Schools--Protest in Venice, Probe of Voting in Madison

Elimination of band, vocal music and art from the curriculum of the Venice School District for the 1972-73 school year and the dismissal of teachers involved in the programs were protested by more than 60 parents at a board of education meeting Monday night.

Admitting there is a need for a solution to the school district's financial problems, the parents told the board they desire to retain the fine arts program if at all possible.

They said the school board should either reinstate the fine arts program or eliminate the sports program also, thus reducing school expenses on either side and being, they asserted, more fair to all students enrolled in the schools.

Frank Reutheberger Jr. was appointed to serve with a committee of eight persons, not to include a school board member, to help seek a solution for the district's financial problems.

The committee will include representatives of all school units, including band, sports, teachers, parents and a member of the student council. The committee is to make recommendations to the board.

A detailed public statement was issued by the board to describe the financial situation and explain actions taken to not alleviate it. The text is given elsewhere in this edition.

Board Reorganizes
Prior to its discussion with the parents, the board reorganized. Leo Davanzo was re-elected as president and Elmer Taylor was elected as secretary. Don Phillips was appointed as treasurer.

The board also retained School Attorney Larry Hartman, Assistant Superintendent of Schools Robert Vickers and Superintendent John Pier at their present salaries.

Fred Duran questioned the advisability of hiring a school dentist and medical doctor, who receive $260 per month as retainer.

He noted that few school districts hire either doctors or dentists, but require students' parents to secure their own doctors who will treat a child if injured at school.

Further investigation will be made to determine if the board will continue the practice. Educational fund bills of $145 were approved for payment. Other bills approved were building fund, $6,824; transportation fund, $2,736; fire and safety fund, $877; and Junior College Fund, $892, for a total of $12,249. Monthly bills for the Venice-Lincoln Technical Center amounted to $16,688 through April 17.

Reports on Insurance
Superintendent Pier reported on the students insurance plan and recommended the same company and plan. Last year, the 1971-72 school year was used for the 1972-73 school year at the same rates.

Wind Damage To Mitchell School Roof

High winds and three-quarter-inch hail caused much damage in Mitchell and the surrounding area shortly before 3 p.m. Monday. Damaged were Mitchell Grade School, several mobile homes and many homes in the Meadow Lane subdivision.

High winds which followed the hail blew off three-fourths of the roof from the gymnasium and classrooms in the 1950 addition of Mitchell School, leaving only the framework, while children muddled inside the building.

High winds also blew off material broke a classroom window, went through a convertible auto and damaged several homes in the area.

After it was over, the school, parking lot and playground looked like a battlefield. Arthur Menendez, principal, said, "It was a disaster."

Sections of the roof were blown off over the school property. The roof was lifted from two classrooms which were not occupied at the time.

If there had been students in those rooms, there most certainly would have been injuries," Menendez said.

He had no warning, but when the storm hit, we rang the bells for all students to go to their classrooms. When the roof blew off, about half were at their posts and the other half were in their way there."

Students who were to walk home were due to be dismissed at 2:30 p.m., about five minutes before the high winds hit, but school officials detained them until the storm subsided.

In addition to the damage to the gym roof was the main section where wind ripped two vents from the roof. Rain fell through the damaged roofs and damaged several classrooms and the gym floor.

After the storm, school officials checked the grounds for possible hazards and then released the pupils at 3:45 p.m.

Repairs began immediately. Workers put the first layer of a new roof on the damaged areas and others dried and covered the gym floor.

The temporary roof repairs and cleaning of debris from the playground and parking lot were completed at 8 p.m. Permanent repairs began this morning. "We are having school today even though there is quite a bit of rain going on," Menendez said.

Large hail reduced visibility to a few feet. Menendez estimated that 62 homes with aluminum siding suffered damage to the siding.

Despite a grand jury study of the April 8 Madison School Board election, the two victorious candidates, James H. Childers and Willie Walker, were elected to the board at the annual reorganization meeting Tuesday night.

Walker defeated Dr. Jack E. Wood by 24 votes, 1144 to 1110, and charges of election irregularities followed. Childers polled 1189 votes.

Marshall "Zeke" Smith, assistant state's attorney, said yesterday he has subpoenaed 200 poll books, judges' certificates and ballots from both Madison school precincts to be studied.

Smith said charges that about 200 ineligible persons voted and that some names appeared twice on the poll books have been made to him, sparking the investigation.

Smith emphasized that the records had to be subpoenaed "because that is the only legal way to do it. The election officials indicated they would be glad to turn the records over to us, but the only legal way to do it is through the arm of the grand jury."

He said election officials were to deliver the records to the state's attorney's office today and that he was to meet with the foreman of the grand jury at 10 a.m. today to seek permission to give the books to Miss Fulalia Hoot, county clerk, to check.

If discrepancies are found by Miss Hoot, there would be the possibility of prosecuting the ineligible voters and we could try to prove malfeasance on the part of election officials," Smith said.

He added that, although most of the complaints centered on voters in Madison School Precinct 2, Blair School, the records of Precinct One, Harris School, also will be checked.

During the Madison School Board reorganization meeting, Harold Talmadge, clerk, was absent from the meeting, was elected president of the board for the 1972-73 year.

Chester McManaway, retiring president, was elected as secretary by the board members. He also was elected to retain Raymond Kozielek as board treasurer and William Kinard as board secretary.

All present administrative staff members, building administrators and supervisors were retained by the new board, as were all teaching personnel.

McManaway expressed appreciation to the two retiring board members, William Schreiber and William Vavra, for their service on the board. Schreiber served for three years and Vavra, six years.

"Both of them were very loyal to the district and put in a lot of their time and energy to solving district problems," McManaway said.

White Darling was talking for police, Winlaw, police said, walked to where the three men were, displayed a pistol and shot Holt, the bullet entered his nose. Witnesses reported Vinson then left the tavern through the front door.

Police said a patron in the tavern followed Winlaw outside, took the gun from him and shot Winlaw in the chest. The second shooting took place on the sidewalk near 5th Street at the side of the tavern. The man then set the 38-caliber pistol at the base of a lamp post and returned to the tavern.

Dead on Arrival
An ambulance took both victims to St. Elizabeth Hospital where Holt was examined and transferred to the St. Louis hospital.

Madison police arrested 75 tavern patrons and employees, including the man believed to have shot Winlaw, but released them without charges pending further investigation.

An autopsy on Winlaw was conducted in Granite City Tuesday morning at the St. Louis City Morgue. Results have not been released.

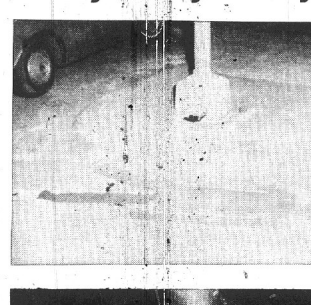

Holt was employed at Corco Copper & Brass Co. in St. Louis as a laborer. He was born in Granite City and was a lifelong resident of the Quad-Cities. He was a graduate of Madison High School.

Holt was a member of Sacred Heart of Jesus Parish.

SCENE OF DEATH inside Darlings 520 Club tavern, 520 Madison Ave., Madison, where Dennis M. Holt, 22, Madison, was wounded fatally in the face shortly after 10 p.m. Monday. A silhouette figure shows the position in which he was found. He died three and a half hours later in a St. Louis hospital.

Two Madison men were fatally shot in a dispute at Darlings 520 Club, 520 Madison Ave., Madison, shortly after 10 p.m. Monday. Nine persons were arrested following the shooting but were released without charges.

Dead are Dennis M. Holt, 22, of 1025 Altam Ave., Madison, and William Charles Winslow, 28, of 1722 Kennedy Drive, Madison, who also was the names William Derrick and James Lee Phillips, police said.

Holt died at Firms Desloge Hospital, St. Louis, at 1:38 p.m. Tuesday with a bullet wound to his face. Winslow was pronounced dead upon arrival at St. Elizabeth Hospital at 10:12 p.m. with a bullet wound through his heart.

Police said Holt and two other men were drinking at the side of the square bar in the tavern, and Winslow and he tavern owner, George Darlings, were talking at the other end of the bar.

Talked to Holt and Winslow, the two men with him reportedly were causing a disturbance, police related. Winslow walked over and talked to Holt. Winslow then returned to the other end of the bar where Darlings waited and bought a round of drinks for everyone on his side of the bar.

Darlings said he told Winslow he would call the police to help the disturbance and walked to the telephone.

While Darlings was talking for police, Winslow, police said, walked to where the three men were, displayed a pistol and shot Holt, the bullet entered his nose. Witnesses reported Vinson then left the tavern through the front door.

Police said a patron in the tavern followed Winslow outside, took the gun from him and shot Winslow in the chest. The second shooting took place on the sidewalk near 5th Street at the side of the tavern. The man then set the 38-caliber pistol at the base of a lamp post and returned to the tavern.

4-Town Sanitary Sewer Plan Gaining Approval

A Quad-City area township sewer program including new interceptor lines that skirt the edge of Granite City and take in areas left out of other programs was approved by the Executive Advisory Committee of the East-West Sewerage Coordinating Council Monday afternoon.

The advisory committee endorsed the Interim Water Quality Management Plan for Granite City Intensive Study Area and recommended it be approved by the Gateway Council board of directors. The board is scheduled to act on the matter in a meeting April 26.

The action approves a priority program — one of three — designed by engineers for the four-township sewer program which calls for installation of interceptors in the unincorporated areas of Nameoki, Venice and Chouteau townships and construction of an interceptor line known as the "blue map" line which is one of three alternative sewer programs proposed by the townships.

The priority plan would provide sewer service to the Benjamin Addition, Mitchell, Pontoon Beach, Stalling's East Madison, Cloverleaf Addition, Eagle Park Acres and State Park Place. It also would provide sewer service to the Bi-State Development Agency and the Tri-City Regional Port Authority for their district harbor facilities on the Granite City riverfront, as well as potential industrial parks in areas east of the port district and Chain of Rocks Canal.

Edward J. Sheppard, Morgan & Schwab engineering firm which is handling sewer planning for the township program described the advisory committee action as "a welcome sign" and said the next step would involve negotiation of an agreement between Madison County and Granite City, as to the estimated cost of sewerage treatment for the townships by Madison County.

Once these agreements are reached, Jeneau said, the township would be able to begin construction of a schedule of rental fees which will be paid by prospective customers who hook into the sewer system.

"If all goes well, it is possible construction could be under way early in 1973," Jeneau said. "If we can accomplish this timetable, and hopefully we can, we should receive a permit for the first phase of 1974 fiscal year which begins in mid-1973," he added.

Appraisals to determine the extent of property assessments necessary to finance construction of a proposed downtown Granite City mill will get underway immediately as the result of a public hearing Tuesday night in which approximately 25 persons were present and an engineering plan for developing and beautifying the area.

The hearing Tuesday night was the second because of a legal technicality involving the membership of the Board of Local Improvements which conducted the first hearing on Feb. 29. A question as to the legality of that hearing developed because the improvement which was at that time did not include a city or public engineer as required by state statutes.

That vacancy since has been filled by the appointment of Edward J. Sheppard, Morgan & Schwab engineering firm, as a fifth member of the Board of Local Improvements.

Expanded Drive for More Jobs
"Together we can meet our goals," Arnold Cassens, president of the Illinois Metro East Industrial Development Corp., told a group of businessmen Tuesday night in Belleville.

Cassens, in the addition of a full-time executive director, Richard H. Dykes, Cassens said he foresees accelerated progress in encouraging industrial development in Madison and St. Clair Counties. He concluded, "We have begun a year which promises to be an exciting one."

Dykes spoke briefly, Chester L. Baker reviewed bylaws amendments and Vice-President B. L. Hantle gave an annual report to the membership.

Carl W. Muhlenbruch, board chairman of Tec-Seach, Inc., Wilmette, Ill., discussed "Grow Up to Grow Out."

He said plastics, copper, aluminum and petrochemical plants probably have large in future industrial development in the Quad-Cities area. He stressed a sense of Illinois regional identity and also stepped up educational efforts.

Arthur C. Becker is treasurer of the development group. Directors include Baker, Burton Bernard, Harold R. Fischer, Ferd Gewert, Arthur Griffin, Norman Johnson, Edward Kellogg, Nick Maggos, Ralph Morris, Carl Ranit and Lester Salem.

A 13-year-old Madison girl walking nearby said she saw the man leave and watched the car drive through the red light at Sixth Street and McCambridge Avenue.

The robber then took the money from the cash register, told the store employee to call the police and fled in an old black car, police were told.

An Illinois state trooper said he observed a car matching the description driving toward East St. Louis on Route 200 but the police car was held up in traffic going the other direction and was unable to pursue the suspect auto.

The robber was described as about 25 years of age, five feet, nine inches tall, wearing a tan jacket and wearing a yellow short-sleeved shirt and checkered trousers.

Budget Meetings Due
Presentation of the mayor's budget proposal now closes the way for budget meetings by the Finance Committee to determine the city's secondary sewerage treatment facilities.

Final approval of the water quality management plan by the Gateway Council board of directors would void the efforts by Granite City to include interceptor construction in its plans for installation of secondary sewerage treatment facilities required by state Environmental Pollution Agency officials by Dec. 31, 1973.

Agreements Needed
Approval of the program in the April 26 board meeting also will clear the way for the negotiation of an agreement between sponsors of the township sewer program (Madison County) and officials of Granite City, covering costs and fee schedules to be paid by the townships for treatment of sewage by the Granite City plant.

The township's advisory committee action gives priority for state and federal approval to a plan of interceptor sewer construction known as the "blue map" line which is one of three alternative sewer programs proposed by the townships.

City Tries to Stop Check Issued Before Approval

Granite City officials made an unsuccessful effort Tuesday to stop payment on a $1,410 check issued in payment of accumulated sick leave to a city fireman who resigned early this week and immediately left the city.

City Treasurer Paul Rutledge who was instructed by the city council Monday night to place a stop order on the check, said the bank informed him the check had cleared the bank on Monday, only a short time after it had been issued by the treasurer's office.

The fireman is Charles Farrell, a 19-year member of the Granite City fire department who would have been eligible for retirement next year, but who resigned effective this week to take a different job in another city.

The council objected to the payment to Farrell for accumulated sick leave on grounds that such payment was made only "upon retirement" and that Farrell's resignation did not give him retirement status. In addition, the council protested, the payment, along with salary due Farrell, was given the fireman before the council approved the payroll list for the first half of April.

Cot Attorney's Opinion
Rutledge told council members that he released the sick leave check after obtaining an opinion on Farrell's right to the sick leave payment from James Thebeau, assistant city attorney. Rutledge said he talked with Thebeau about the matter Monday and that Thebeau had confirmed his opinion in a telephone conversation with City Attorney Leon Scroggins.

The payroll list submitted to the council for approval Monday night listed payment to Farrell of $88.80 in salary for April, $158.02 in vacation pay and $1,866.69 representing 50% of 126 days of accumulated sick leave. The check was issued and followed each item. Rutledge said the check given Farrell for sick leave in the amount of $1,410 represented the balance of the $1,866 item after withholding deductions.

Alderman Sam Whitmer said the city's present ordinance would not permit the sick leave payment because Farrell was "quitting his job" and was not retiring. Scroggins argued, however, that Farrell's resignation entitled him to 50% of accumulated sick leave under the present city ordinance, even though the word "retirement" was used in phrasing the rules. The sick leave ordinance last was revised in January this year.

May Revise Ordinance
Scroggins was instructed to check the ordinance and bring in recommendations for making them more specific as to qualifications for sick leave. Several aldermen suggested specific terms be written into contracts now being negotiated with union representatives city employees.

When Alderman Thomas A. Boker, chairman of the council's Finance Committee presented the payroll for approval, Whitmer moved for separation of the sick leave item. After the remainder of the payroll was approved, Whitmer moved that the sick leave not be paid to Farrell, although the check already had been issued. The motion carried.

On the basis of that motion, the council requested the city order be placed on the check.

Fire Chief Earl Fronberger said that Farrell has not applied for pension and that he left the city hurriedly to accept a new job. Farrell was an engineer on the fire department.

will handle the assessment bond issue, construction contracts and other procedures necessary to the development. The mall is considered necessary to revitalization of the downtown shopping area and is supported by a majority of the property owners who will pay the bill.

Mayor Donald Partney, a member of the improvement board and chairman of the public hearing Tuesday night in the third floor of the city hall, explained the "downtown wedge" area proposed for development and explained the proposed method of financing through issuance of special assessment bonds.

Other members of the Board of Local Improvements include Street Superintendent Libel Portell, Juneau, and aldermen Walter Norn and Frank Greenwood. All attended the Tuesday hearing.

Two formal objections to the project were filed during the hearing by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schuman, owners of property located within the proposed mall area, and attorneys representing the owners of property at 1326 Niedringhaus Ave., which houses the law offices of Callis & Filcoff, Granite City attorneys.

William Brandt, attorney for the city and Board of Local Improvements on the mall development, said the objections will not delay further procedures since state law permits approval of the project by more than 50% of the owners of property encompassed by the project boundaries.

Brandt said that Tuesday night's hearing cleared the way for filing a petition for approval of the project in circuit court at Edwardsville. Property appraisals and the schedule of property assessments must be obtained before the petition is filed asking court approval of the overall mall project and the financing plan, Brandt said.

"After the petition for approval of the mall project is filed, objectors, if there are any, may file their protests with the court," Brandt noted.

The mall project was initiated early in 1969 by representatives of the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce, downtown merchants and the city.

Plans for the mall are being coordinated by Harlan Bartholomew & Associates, St. Louis planning engineers. Cost of the project has been estimated at $2,700,000.

Nursing Home for which a charter was issued by the secretary of state's office several weeks ago.

Construction work is scheduled to get under way soon and target date for opening the nursing home facility is Jan. 1, 1973.

The city council also approved recommendations of the Board of Appeals, granting the following appeals:

Allen Charbonnier to construct a carport two feet from the side property line at 2908 Warren Ave. in an R-3 zone.

E. J. Byrne to construct a carport two feet from the side property line at 3213 Aubrey Ave. in an R-2 zone.

Andrew Butkovich to construct a garage one foot from the side property line at 2519 Hodges Ave.

Harold Atchley to construct a garage one foot from the side property line at 14 Mercer Drive in an R-1 zone.

Roy Koberna to construct an attached garage four feet from the side property line at 4307 Sara St. in an R-4 zone.

George Sykes to construct a two-car garage four feet from the side property line at 3524 Johnson Road in an R-2 zone.

Engineers Hold Up Interceptor Planning

Granite City's special engineers preparing plans for the city's secondary sewage treatment plant are not working at this time on plans for construction of interceptor sewers—a phase of the program originally proposed by the city—Mayor Donald Partney told city council members Monday night.

The mayor's comment followed presentation to the council of a letter directed to the mayor by the Tri-Cities Taxpayers Public Expenditures Survey Group asking if the city has held up planning of the interceptors because of indications that the interceptor construction will be carried out as part of a sewer program sponsored by the four townships of the Quad-City area.

Since the same letter was directed also to Aaron A. Pierson, vice-president of MW, Inc., Architects-Engineers, St. Louis, the city council took no action to respond to the taxpayers' letter. Instead they approved a motion that the mayor's letter be referred to the engineering firm for an answer. The MW firm is handling the planning for the city's secondary sewage treatment program.

Favor Township Plan

The question of whether the MW firm was continuing with plans for the interceptors arose after federal and regional planning agencies indicated they favor construction of interceptors as part of the township program which will include installation of collector sewers in the unincorporated areas of Venice, Nemoqui and Chouteau townships.

Plans for construction of interceptors by the city were included in the preliminary engineering work done by the MW firm. The city paid $100,000 for the preliminary plan report. The MW firm informed the city that the remainder of the planning, along with inspections during construction, would cost approximately $500,000. At the time the estimate was made, the city still projected construction of the interceptors as part of its secondary program.

After the township sewer program was developed, including a plan of interceptor construction that would take the sewer lines around the city, the Southwestern Metropolitan Area Planning Commission and state and federal agencies indicated their approval of that program.

As a result, the question arose as to whether the city would proceed with planning interceptors in the city program at substantial engineering costs.

Part of Letter

The letter sent by the taxpayers survey group, signed by Howard Schuetke, president, said, in part:

"Several of our members have queried whether the city and your firm (MW engineers) have help up engineering... pending some firm conclusion, or whether we are forging ahead with the full engineering process based on the assumption that one or the other in each case will be reached. To be blunt, have we taken steps to be sure that no tax monies will be wasted in performing engineering which will not, in the future, be fully utilized?"

Alderman Paul Schuler asked Mayor Partney:

"Are the engineers doing any planning work on the interceptors now?"

"No," the mayor replied, "not so far as we are concerned."

The motion to refer the mayor's letter to the MW firm was approved unanimously.

35 Tickets Remain for Dinner Theatre Trip

Only 35 tickets remain for the Granite City Park District's trip to the Barn Dinner Theatre, near Ellisville, Mo., on Sunday, April 30, Harold Brown, superintendent of parks, said today.

Reservations are being taken by telephone Friday at the Wilson Park office, or by calling 737-3659. A total of 100 tickets already has been sold for the event, Brown said.

Those making the trip will view the theater, enjoy an outstanding dinner, the park official added.

Reservations, costing $7.75 per person, include roundtrip transportation, dinner and the show. Buses will leave the Wilson Park rink at 4:30 p.m. April 30.

Dinner, served smorgasbord-style, offers theatre patrons choice meats, seafood, chicken, a variety of salads and vegetables and a variety of desserts.

"Come Blow Your Horn," made into a musical, is the picture starring Frank Sinatra, deals with a Bronx father's efforts to get his playboy sons to accept responsibility and settle down. The sons prefer the care-free existence of a bachelor apartment and the result is a slick, lively comedy loaded with rich humor.

Olds Sales Gain Led By the Cutlass F-85

Oldsmobile's St. Louis metropolitan zone finished in third place in the industry for the year 1971, being one of only seven zones in the U. S. to achieve equal sales recognition, W. R. Owen, zone manager, has announced.

"Through March, Oldsmobile has continued in third place," he noted, adding that "one of the main factors has been the popularity of the Cutlass F-85 line's something held in the past three years, our F-85 sales have increased from 29% of total Oldsmobile sales to 43% of total, Owen reported.

The metropolitan areas "12 merry men Olds" are announcing a "Cutlass value package" campaign featuring vinyl pool, white tires, deep pile nylon carpeting, wheel opening and lower panel moldings; full wheel discs and lowered hood to mark Oldsmobile's 75th anniversary.

Venice School Board Lists Steps Taken to Ease Financial Crisis

Following is the text of an open letter to Venice school district citizens, issued by the school board at its April meeting Monday night:

"The Venice Board of Education is taking this opportunity to inform you of the financial crisis facing the school district and to outline certain steps which have been taken to help alleviate the crisis.

"For the past three years the school district has had to borrow money for educational expenses. Starting with $300,000 in 1969-70, $400,000 in 1970-71 and $400,000 this far in the current year ending June 30, 1972. This is one-million dollars that we have had to borrow to meet salary and other educational expenses over the past three years.

"Since money borrowed must be repaid out of the first tax settlement of the school year, it is obvious that we are in a never ending cycle of borrowing, and in serious danger of not having money to begin the 1972-73 school year.

"How has this happened to the school district? We are in the 'same boat' with many schools in the nation that are trying to provide quality education in the face of rising costs and decreasing revenues. Our assessed valuation has dropped from a high of $39,591,595 in 1962, to the present $34,499,825.

"The biggest taxpayer in the District (Union Electric Co.), has already been granted an assessed value of $3,000,000 cut in its assessment over the next 3 years. In terms of dollars this drop in assessment since 1962 has cost the district more than $100,000.

"In 1962-63 our school district enrolled nearly 1,000 pupils. Today we have 659. A loss of over 300 pupils in 10 years. In spite of this decline in enrollment we have had to maintain the same teaching staff at a level which would insure your children a sound general and college preparatory education.

"Equally important is the fact that we must meet certain state and federal requirements in order to obtain recognition from the state and the North Central Association.

State Aid

"While it is true that our district does get State Aid ($57,624 in 1971-72, $4,802 per pupil), the amount does not compare with what our neighboring cities of Granite City, ($5,943,509 or $85,292 per month), and Madison ($1,688,040 or $60.67 per month) receive.

"State aid is based primarily on two factors: (1) Average Daily Attendance (2) the district's ability to pay its own way. The enrollment drop in our district has had its effect on the State Aid we receive.

"We have dropped from $64,152 in 1967-68 to the present $57,624 because of our drop in ADA, a loss of $6,528. The drop in enrollment has also had an adverse effect. In spite of the loss in assessed valuation, the drop in enrollment has in fact increased the assessed valuation per student, ($39,591,595 divided by 1,000 students equals $39,591.595; $34,499,825 divided by 659 students equals $52,338 today.

"Since state aid is based upon the two factors, ADA and assessed valuation per student, one can see why our district gets so little.

"In 1962-63 the district's education levy was $457,721. The current education levy is $719,470 for an increase of $261,749 and yet we are having to borrow $400,000 in an effort to meet expenses through June 30.

"In 1962 we were levying $63.14 for building fund purposes. Today that levy is $131.610 and it is not able to support our needs (custodial, building upkeep, utilities, etc.).

"A further view of increased costs can be seen when one compares our teachers' monthly payroll of $29,127 in 1962-63 with the present $50,340 monthly payroll. Of course one need only go to the store and purchase food or clothing and then remember what these items cost just a few years ago to be made dramatically aware of the impact of inflation and high costs.

Three Major Factors

"These three factors then: (1) Loss in assessed valuation, (2) rising costs, (3) drop in enrollment are primarily responsible for the district's financial crisis.

"Very little in the way of equipment has been purchased for the past few years. Money spent for supplies, text books, field trips, athletics, etc., has also been reduced.

"Even these reductions have not been enough.

"The Board of Education at its last meeting of March 21 reluctantly voted to eliminate Band, Vocal Music and Art from the curriculum for the coming year. Several other teaching staff positions were abolished with the work to be absorbed by other faculty members.

"While no final decisions have been made at this writing, the Board of Education is studying still further ways of cutting expenses -- ways which may mean additional reductions in personnel.

"Has the Lincoln Technical Center caused this financial crisis? The answer to this is no. Lincoln is financed 100% by state and federal funds. The biggest complaint with the operation there is getting the state and federal government to pay off on time.

"It is true that because of these days the school district does have to advance money to the center to meet payrolls, etc. This money is repaid to the district when state funds are received. At the present time Lincoln owes the School District $30,000, a pittance when compared to the $400,000 borrowed this year to operate the Public Schools.

"Why is the board coming to the public now? It is true that better communication should have been published in the papers at the time it occurred, an effort to keep the public informed.

"All regular meetings of the Board are open to the public, and indeed there are occasions when patrons of the district do attend.

"What we are attempting then with this letter is to reach the larger segment of our school district which for one reason or another is not fully aware of the conditions in their school district.

Several Things Can Happen

"What about the future of the school district? There are several things that can happen, but whatever is to be will be up to you -- the district taxpayer.

"The board of education is trying to reduce expenditures in the coming year by as much as $100,000. Even with this kind of reduction it is obvious that the schools cannot continue to exist without additional revenue.

"The board realized that its decision to eliminate the Fine Arts program would be subject to criticism, for anything taken away will be missed by some, turmoil or strife. "We are convinced, however, that we have eliminated those things which will have the least effect academically, and the least affect so far as the total well being of the district is concerned.

"For the most part the rest is up to you. In essence it boils down to whether you, the taxpayer, want to keep the school district alive. The alternatives are simple: Either we work and sacrifice to build and continue the school district or we continue to eliminate programs and personnel until there is nothing left but empty buildings.

"We believe our school system has much to offer and that the children of the district will certainly be the losers if the above alternatives prevail.

"We cannot solve the problems of the district with trust, turmoil or strife. Patience, understanding, sacrifice and hard work will be required.

"We urge your continued support and assistance in these efforts."

Trust Bank Employees Given Service Awards

The 11th annual service award dinner was held in the lobby of the Granite City Trust and Savings Bank Tuesday night.

Dinner was served to 138 employees and their families. Tom Novak, St. Louis magician, entertained with a one-hour performance.

E. Karandjef, president of the bank, served as toastmaster and presented service awards to 19 employees.

One year awards were presented to Debra Chepley, Andrea Culbert, Mary Gulash, Novak, St. Louis magician, Sandi Mueller, Neva Smith, Ruth Sugh, Helen Dooley, and Jack Darlington.

Five-year awards were received by Sue Barnett, Joyce Harris, Mary Kuhrik, and Wally Holton.

Betty Frick received a 15-year award and Williams Evans received a 20-year award.

Barry Loman received his 20-year award and 60-year awards were presented to R. C. Barney and H. D. Karandjef.

Wilson Named To All-Stars

Doug Wilson, Granite City High School's championship 132-pound wrestler, has been named to the Illinois Wrestling Coaches and Officials Association All-Star team.

Wilson, who topped the state record for the number of match victories in a season from 42 to 43, was cited during the association's convention this week. He was one of 36 Illinois wrestlers to receive the honor.

Kahoks Ban Lincoln Games

The Collinsville Board of Education has ordered a ban on athletic competition with Lincoln High School of East St. Louis as a result of fights and property destruction at the high school sectional basketball tournament March 10 at Edwardsville.

The board voted 6-1 to instruct the Kahok athletic director not to play Lincoln during the 1972-73 school year.

As Lincoln is due to join the Southwestern Conference, of which Collinsville is a member, in the next school year, Collinsville would have to forfeit athletic contests scheduled with Lincoln, according to the principal at CHS.

Warriors 3rd in League Relays

As expected, host Alton and East St. Louis overpowered everyone in the Southwestern Conference Relays Tuesday afternoon, and Granite City, despite a powerful push to take second, finished third, 30 points behind East St. Louis.

Team scores were: Alton 97, East St. Louis 92½, Granite City 62, Belleville West 52, Collinsville 23 and Edwardsville 7.

The Warriors were hopeful of the second spot after having downed East St. Louis 79 to 71 in a meet here last Thursday.

Brad Hiles was the only GCHS champ, hurling the discus 157 feet, 5½ inches, and Warrior Jim Robbers followed with a toss of 148 feet for second.

Other individual performances included: 100-yard dash—Stan Stajduhar, second, :10.0 Two-mile run—Howard Bryant, third, 10:04. Long Jump—William Arnold, fourth, 20'11". Shot put—Hiles, second, 51'9". Brad Weiss, third, 47'8". Pole vault—Dave Bell, third, 12'8".

The Warriors also finished second in the low hurdles shuttle relay behind East St. Louis and claimed thirds in the 440-yard and 880-yard relays.

Members of the low hurdles shuttle relay team were Dave Carmody, Dave Maclos, Rich Schooley and William Arnold.

On the 440- and 880-yard teams were Greg Becker, Stajduhar, Arnold and Schooley.

Warriors on the distance medley team which earned fourth place were Tom Stephens, Becker, Carmody and Bryant, and on the four-place mile relay squad, Tom Bell, Mark Loftus, Dale Livingston and Dale Miller.

A bad handoff disqualified the Warriors from the sprint medley where they would have been assured fifth as only four teams finished.

The Warrior sophomores will compete at the Alton Sophomore Relays at 3:30 p.m. today, and Saturday the varsity and sophomore squads will compete in the annual Mattson Track Carnival, one of the biggest meets of the year. Events at Mattson begin at 9:15 a.m. Saturday.

Trojan Trackmen Fourth in Relays

The Madison High School track and field squad made a strong showing in the 17-team Roxana Relays Tuesday, finishing fourth.

The Mascoutah Indians won the event with 64½ points, Litchfield 47½, with 47½, Roxana third with 38 and Madison one behind at 38.

Other scores were Wood River 38, Collinsville 37, North Green and O'Fallon 12, Lebanon and Bethalto 10, Columbia 9, Carlinville and Dupo 7, Jerseyville 5, Mater Dei 3 and Okawville 0.

The Indians won only two events while the Madison Trojans took the top honors in three.

Breaks Record
Trojan Ed Chandler broke the old record of 10.1 second in the 100-yard dash, finishing in 9.8 seconds flat. The previous record had been held by Taylorville since 1965.

Amati, Spalding to Defend Race Crowns

Super-sprint and late model stock car racing is scheduled to resume Sunday afternoon at the Tri-City Speedway after a wet school sectional basketball tournament March 10 at Edwardsville.

The board voted 6-1 to instruct the Kahok athletic director not to play Lincoln during the 1972-73 school year.

As Lincoln is due to join the Southwestern Conference, of which Collinsville is a member, in the next school year, Collinsville would have to forfeit athletic contests scheduled with Lincoln, according to the principal at CHS.

Russell and Ray Hubbard of Slater, Mo.

In the late models, Spalding will attempt a repeat feature victory over a field of challengers including Bill Myers of Rosewood Heights and Roger Drake of Decatur. About 40 super-sprints and 35 late model stock cars are expected to compete.

Time-trials Sunday will begin at 1:30 p.m. with the trophy dashes and heat races to follow about 2:30 p.m. A 20-lap super-sprint feature and a 25-lap late model feature will highlight the afternoon's events.

Trojans Drop 3 As Errors Abound

To err is human, but to forgive is hard, according to Coach Ron Davis whose Madison High School team lost Wednesday at home to Central of St. Louis 10-6 after committing 10 errors.

The Trojans lost to Hillsboro Tuesday 13-8, committing five errors, and dropped their game Monday to Roxana 9-3, also with five errors.

In Wednesday's game Central scored its first four runs on no hits and four errors.

Trojan Rick Harper played first base for the first time as Alvin Wigfall was injured sliding into second in the Hillsboro game Tuesday.

The Trojans scored three runs in the first and second innings while Columbia counted one in the first; three in the second and six in the fifth.

Central clobbered two four baggers in the fifth, accounting for five runs.

In Tuesday's game at Hillsboro, the Trojan back was broken in the second inning when Hillsboro racked up nine runs on six hits and three errors. The MHS team tallied eight runs and eight hits, but the opponents won with nine hits, committing five errors.

Trojan Greer slammed two triples and walked once in three times at bat.

In hosting Roxana Monday, MHS scored three runs on three hits, while Roxana collected 10.

The Trojans came in the second inning, but Roxana scored six in the second and one in each of the next three innings.

The Trojans are now 1-8 for the season and will play a make-up game at Waterloo Friday and will be at home to Assumption at 1 p.m. Saturday.

Brake Pitches No-Hitter In 1-0 Victory Over Alton

Warrior pitcher Jesse Brake, a 5'6", 140-pound senior, pitched the first no-hitter his team has had in two years as Granite City High School blanked Alton 1-0 Monday at Wilson Park.

The Warriors then suffered a 5-4 loss at Belleville West yesterday.

Brake fanned nine and walked five. He was in trouble only once, and that was in the first inning when he loaded the bases. But after he worked his way out, he dominated the game. According to Coach Gale Garber, who was an excellent pitcher himself, Brake has a good fast ball and a good curve. He is now 2-0 for the season, having been credited with a victory over Madison.

The Warrior run came in the sixth inning when Jack Scott, a sophomore singled, catcher Joe Wallace sacrificed and Bill Parks singled.

Parks led the Warrior hitting with three-for-three. Howard Ehlertson also came through as the Warriors totaled five hits.

The Warriors are now 6-5 overall and 1-3 in the conference.

They play today at Edwardsville, tomorrow at River View Gardens and at home Saturday against St. Louis U. High beginning at 11 a.m.

Cougars Sweep 2, Top St. Louis U.

Cougar power at the plate and on the mound gave Southern Illinois University-Southwestern a twin baseball victory 7-2 and 13-2 over St. Louis U. yesterday at ABC Park in St. Louis.

Hurter Don Rains was touched for nine hits in the first game but won his fourth victory without loss. He fanned three batters. The Cougars also came through with nine hits, including a two-run homer by Dan Cole, who ended his slump with a four-for-five game and boosted his previous .283 average.

SU-SW led the game in the second inning with five runs and added two more in the fourth. St. Louis U. scored in the first and third frames. Tim Summers worked behind the plate. Each team committed three errors.

Lefty Steve Malone hurled a two-hitter and was credited with his second mound victory without loss in the nightcap as the Cougars won the second game 13-2. For the Cougars, Mike relay—John Ishum, John Hoffman, Rick Roberts, Jeff Dilday, 4:18; Cahokia 9th 38, Prather 29 (For Prather: Shot put—Lynn Huff, 42.7).

APA Pet Parade Saturday To Feature Contest, Prizes

The Granite City police canine patrol, pets of all descriptions, mounted horsemen and a "real live" cougar are among the entries scheduled to take part in the first "Pet Parade and Contest," to be held at noon Saturday under the auspices of the Quad-City Association for the Protection of Animals.

Marchers will assemble, starting at 11 a.m., Saturday, on Niedringhaus Avenue between Delmar and Edison avenues. The area will be cordoned off by police, Mrs. Judith Johnson, APA president, said today.

Should inclement weather exist during the morning hours, Mrs. Johnson advised participants to call 877-8569 for updated information, or contact an APA member at the parade assembly point. In the event of heavy downpour, the parade probably will be postponed until May, the official said.

Any Child May Enter
Response to the parade from Cub Scout groups and other area youth organizations has been "very good," Mrs. Johnson noted. All area youngsters between the ages of 6 and 17 are invited to take part.

Children unable to walk the parade route may bring their pets to Wilson Park, where a pet judging contest will be staged at 1 p.m. Saturday, near the 29th and State streets entrance. Refreshments, donated by Pepsi-Cola Co. of Alton, will be available at the park site for participants, Mrs. Johnson said.

The parade will proceed east on Niedringhaus Avenue to Madison Avenue, north on Madison to 29th Street and west on 29th to Wilson Park for judging.

Gillespie Cager Signs as Cougar
Mark Weyen, a 6-2 1/2" basketball guard from Gillespie High School, has signed a letter of intent to enroll at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern. Jim Dudley, basketball coach, announced the signing.

Weyen is 17 and weighs 165 pounds. A 60% shot from the field, Mark was on his county and all-conference teams and won special mention on several all-state teams. He was picked on the all-tourney team in last season's Edwardsville High School Holiday tournament.

GC Net Team Bows to West

The Granite City High School tennis Warriors lost a Southwestern Conference match 4-1 to Belleville West Wednesday to their record to 1-7.

Warrior Rick Gaines won second doubles, defeating West's Brad Watkins 6-4, 8-6, 6-3.

William Christopher, in first singles, won his first round 6-1; he lost the next two 3-6, 4-6.

Gary Loy lost third singles 1-6, 5-7.

Warriors Rich Paschedag and Eric Cunningham lost first doubles 2-6, 2-6, and Perry Dillard and Ralph Reeder dropped second doubles 1-6, 3-6.

The Warriors travel to Edwardsville today.

Cougar Jayvees Down Forest Park

The junior varsity baseball team at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern defeated Forest Park Community College 9-1 in a home game Wednesday to give the young Cougars a 2-3 record for the season.

Nick Balz, who pitched the first six innings, led an eight-hit Cougar attack with three hits and three runs batted in.

Car Chased, Forced Into Army Gate

The car of Debra K. Pyles, 2224 E. 24th St., was chased and forced off the road and into the south gate of the U. S. Army Installation in Granite City, Monday.

The woman told police another car chased her westbound on Bissell Street in Madison to the installation gate at which time she attempted to turn her auto around and was forced off the road and into the gate. Her car was damaged extensively and had to be towed from the scene.

REV. BOYCE EVANS ROBERT WAGONER ANITA WAGONER

Texas Evangelist at 1st Baptist Revival

The Rev. Boyce Evans will be the evangelistic speaker at the First Baptist Church, 21st Street and Delmar Avenue, during a revival that begins Monday. He will be accompanied by the musical duo, Robert and Anita Wagoner, who will provide special religious music.

Services during the week-long revival will be conducted daily at 10 a.m. and 7:30 p.m., the Rev. Ray Eitelman, First Baptist pastor, announced today. The programs will conclude Sunday, April 30.

The Rev. Boyce Evans, a native Texan, makes his home in Lubbock, Tex. He is a graduate of Hardin-Simmons University and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

He has served as pastor of several Baptist churches in Texas and also promoted evangelism and Christian education in recent years as a member of the staff of Hardin-Simmons University.

Robert Wagoner was graduated from Oklahoma Baptist University, where he received scholarships in piano and brass and also was a featured vocal soloist with the university's Bison Glee Club.

He served as youth and music director at several Baptist churches in Oklahoma before entering full time evangelistic work. During the revival he will work with the youth of the local church while his wife leads the junior age group.

Mrs. Anita Wagoner accompanies her husband at the piano. She is an accomplished pianist, has won many awards for her piano artistry and has considerable experience with junior choirs.

Anyone desiring transportation to and from church meetings may call 876-6373, the pastor said, adding the public is invited to attend all sessions.

NAVY AIRMAN, WIFE MOVE TO MOFFETT AIR FIELD

ADJ/Third Class Terry MacZura, U. S. Navy, has been transferred to Moffett Navy Air Field, Calif., from the Navy's auxiliary air base at Monterey, Calif. The latter facility is being closed.

MacZura, who is accompanied by his wife, Marilyn, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren MacZura, 3208 Aubrey Ave. The local serviceman is a jet engine mechanic working in the same branch of the Navy in which his brother, Roger MacZura, served until promoted to flight engineer. The older MacZura son had since received his discharge from the service.

BETROTHED. Miss Lori Higgins, who will become the bride of Daniel G. Bridick, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Higgins of Edwarsville, are announcing the engagement.

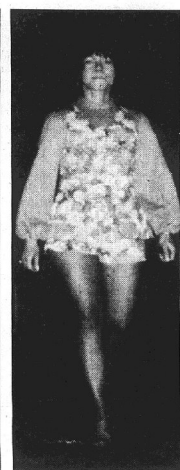

Bridick-Higgins Betrothal Told

The engagement of Miss Lori Higgins and Daniel G. Bridick is being announced by the bride-to-be's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Higgins, 239 West Lockhaven Drive, Edwarsville.

Wedding plans are incomplete at the present time.

Circus Theme at Pack 98 Meeting

David Maxfield advanced to Boy Scout Troop 98 in ceremonies taking place Monday evening at a meeting of Cub Pack 98 at Stallings School.

The youth, a cub scout for three years, was accepted into the troop by Scoutmaster Ray Gaudette Jr. He also was presented his 15th Webelos activity badge—the craftsman award.

"Circus Time" was the theme of the April pack meeting. Each den presented a skit and performed as jugglers, clowns and wild animals or in similar circus acts.

Cubmaster Dale Poiter, aided by Edward LaRue, assistant cubmaster, gave awards to Gerald Bowen, wolf badge; Keith Wilson, wolf badge and bear book; David Clutts, wolf badge, gold arrow and bear book; David Fore, one silver arrow and Barry Adams, two silver arrows.

Ronald Davis received five Webelos activity badges—aquanaut, citizen, craftsman, scholar and showman—bringing his total number of achievement badges to 15.

The "rooster flag" was awarded to Den 1 for having the most parents present. The same den won a ribbon for achieving the same feat at three consecutive meetings.

Mothers of Webelos scouts and Den 1 cubs provided refreshments. A potluck supper at Cahokia Mounds State Park is planned for the next pack meeting on May 15.

Pick Your Own Look for Spring '72

"Eyes go one color for spring and softly darker."

"Eyes are brightly shaded, multicolored."

"The mouth is the focal point" ... "Play up the eyes."

"Frosted lips are out!"

"Frosted lips are out!"

"Gone are the no-color faces of the '60s' ... "Natural is back."

"Confused?"

Don't be. There's only one sure thing about beauty for spring — the options are many and as diverse as the jonquil, narcissus, crocus, hyacinth and lily of the valley popping up on hillsides. You pick the look you like.

Makeup, like art, is a matter of personal taste. The masters are overflowing with ideas. You pick your own style from the selections that best suit your surroundings and life style. To help you choose, here's a look at how some of the experts interpret the different faces of spring.

Serge Lutens for Christian Dior sees it as a time for "a quiver of color, a slight shimmer of shine and the natural, fragile paleness of a morning beauty."

He takes the Victorian look and enlivens it with moody, charcoal eyes and a mouth of rich red or red-brown.

Eyes go one color and softly dark, according to Lutens.

"There are no more shocking effects, no more hard lines."

He diffuses shadow from the base of the eyelash into a paled softness up to the brows in somber shades of charcoal, avocado, chestnut, midnight blue.

At Elizabeth Arden they are saying, "Gone are the pale, no-color faces of the '60s."

"Instead, sleeked-back hair and flipped-brimmed hats have a clear field for focus on the face."

Pablo, Arden's creative director, focuses in with shiny, bright red lips and cheeks and green eye shadow. He calls it "the look of the classics under new control."

And for variety, Pablo also in smoky tones of pink, mauve likes a softly smoldering face and burgundy.

If smoky and sultry isn't your bag, Cover Girl suggests the "happy face." It means a natural, skin-tone foundation with green-shaded eyes, bright lips and hollowed cheeks. "Dark, deep and subtle colors are last year's woes," experts here say.

The Cover Girl beauty emphasis is hollowed cheeks: Breathe in, purse the lips to form an O and fill in the cheek hollows with a darker shade of foundation. "It makes a happier face," these experts suggest.

They say the added color keeps the complexion from slipping next to bright pop colors — red, orange, yellow and green — in spring fashions.

For spring evenings, you can go Oriental, dramatic or elegant.

Revlon is celebrating "The Year of the Chinese. This first looks the luminosity of the Oriental look and says lip-roses are definitely in. They've got a whole new line of lipstick in lacquer red, orange and earth tones, spiced with silver luminescence.

"The face in the Eastern fashion," says Revlon expert, "is not Oriental, but a luminous, gentle look any Occidental can wear happily."

Try a porcelain, matte-finished foundation, the cheeks, chin, forehead and nose tinged with luminous blusher and eyes defined by pearled liquid shadow brushes from lash line to brow. "If China isn't your evening cup of tea, try a '40s vamp, with red lips, smoky eyes and curls piled up on top, Betty Grabe style.

Or haul out the bank vault jewelry and try a return to elegance.

"The 1972 face will be elegant," said Estee Lauder.

Alexandra, czarina of Russia and the subject of the film, "Nicholas and Alexandra," inspired what Estee Lauder calls her regal "czarina" look.

"I think of Alexandra's features in terms of her fabulous jewels," said Mrs. Lauder. "If you don't have magnificent jewelry, Mrs. Lauder suggests trying a face, pale as fine ivory, a faint blush with eye glaze dabbed under the eyebrows and brought around the eyes — and to top it all—jeweled-toned lipstick in deep rich shades like crushed garnets or rubies."

ST. JOHN'S YOUTH GROUP PLANS CAMPING TRIP

The Youth Fellowship of St. John United Church of Christ will enjoy a spring campout this weekend at Washington State Park in Desoto, Mo.

Under the leadership of Miss Jennifer Sage, president, plans have been made to leave the church between 5 to 6 p.m. Friday, returning about 3:30 p.m. Sunday.

CHURCH WOMEN UNITED officers who discussed community-wide programs sponsored by the organization at a dinner meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club last night. Speakers, left to right, are Mrs. Joan Roberts, vice-president; Mrs. Fred Rupp, president; seated, Mrs. Pauline Weir, BPW president; and Mrs. Joyce Schrader, board member.

MRS. MICHAEL J. PRITCHARD, the former Miss Diane M. Teetor, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Teetor, 1531 Lindell Blvd., who was married April 15 at Sacred Heart Roman Catholic Church. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Pritchard, 2429 Center St.

Church Women Review Programs For Local BPW

A program on "Women of the Community," presented by representatives of the Quad-City Council of Church Women United, and individual awards to members for outstanding achievement during the past months highlighted the Civic Participation dinner meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club held Wednesday evening at Charlie's Restaurant.

Entertainment was provided by music students of Bill Ogden, an instructor at Johnson's Music Store. Those participating in the program, ranging in age from 8 to 17 years, included Gary Anderson, Jim Hudson, Phyllis Von Nida, Pam Reese, Mike Hagnauer, Craig Slattery and Bill and John Kovach, a duet.

Mrs. Fred Rupp, president of the Quad-City Council of Church Women United, Mrs. Joan Roberts, vice-president and Mrs. Joyce Schrader, a board member and past president, spoke on the community-wide programs sponsored by the Church Women's group on a volunteer basis.

The most pressing need at this time is for live drivers to provide transportation for the Day Care Center, Friends and Learning, underprivileged children, Mental Health and Nearly New Clothing Center programs, Mrs. Rupp explained.

Awards were presented to the "speak off" winners in the BPW's Individual Development Program and certificates also were given to those who completed both courses. Mrs. Rebecca State received the "Nike Award" as winner of Course 1 and certificates went to Mrs. Lorene Sadrakula and Mrs. Rosemary Baseden.

Mrs. Sylvia Wright, winner of Course 11 and overall club winner, also received first place in District 14 competition. She will participate in a state-wide contest at the 51st annual convention of the Illinois Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Inc. this weekend in Chicago. Mrs. Bonnie Launby received a certificate of completion for Course 11.

Delegates who will represent the Granite City BPW club at the state convention are Mesdames Pauline Weir, Dolores Allen, Sylvia Wright, Rosemary Baseden, Verna Lengyel, Genevieve D. Ruddy, Ann Butler, Becky Slater, Ruby Parker, Lil Marzuff and Ruth Milbousser and Miss Annelien Smith.

Guests attending last night's dinner meeting were Miss Marjorie Hester, Mesdames Ann Hordesky, Edith Schwab, Helen Oberliff, Marian Halfacre and Fay Hill.

The birthdays of Mrs. Rose Darline and Mrs. Lottie Schuster were celebrated.

MR. AND MRS. PHILIP D. BOYER, who exchanged wedding vows at St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church. The bride is the former Miss Martha Jane Bathon, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Bathon, 203 1/2 Fifth St., Madison.

St. Mary's Scene of Boyer-Bathon Nuptials

The wedding of Miss Martha Jane Bathon, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Bathon, 203 1/2 Fifth Street, Madison and Philip D. Boyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Boyer, 220 State St., was solemnized at 2 p.m. April 15 at St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church.

Arrangements of white gladioli and pom poms decorated the altar for the double ring ceremony, performed by the Rev. Martin Mangano.

Preceding the bride down the white carpeted aisle was Mrs. Manuel Fernandez, sister of the bride, matron of honor, Miss J. Harrison, a cousin of the groom and Miss Debra Bathon, the bride's sister, bridesmaid. The bride's sister, bridesmaid, Miss Michelle and Mr. Robert Boyer, sisters of the groom, junior bridesmaids.

They were identical gowns fashioned of pink chiffon and large pink picture hats to complement their ensembles. Each carried a colonial bouquet of carnations, pom poms and baby's breath in spring colors.

The brides were trimmed with white Venise lace, masked with pink chiffon and floral motifs, at the neckline, creating a front and back bib effect. Repeated motifs cuffed the flared sleeves and edged a gleam flounce around the hem of the full skirts.

Immediately before the bride's arrival, Mrs. Ann Pieper sang "Love Theme From Romeo and Juliet," "On This Day," "One Hand, One Heart" and "We've Only Just Begun." She was accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Cieta Judd.

Given in marriage by her father, the former Miss Bathon chose a pure white satin gown designed with a molded bodice, featuring a high neckline edged in a delicate Venise lace.

Bands of matching lace encircled the waist and formed a dropped shoulder effect. Full bishop sleeves ended with ruffle at the wrist.

Large lace "appliques" accented the long skirt and a gathered flounce that extended into a full sweep train. She wore a camel headpiece created of Venise lace to secure a triple-tiered veil of bridal illusion, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and pink roses.

Serving as best man was Manuel Fernandez, brother-in-law of the bride. Groomsmen and ushers included Victor Colling, Joseph Marzuff, Guy Bathon, the bride's cousin, and Mike Hoffman.

Expect August Bids On SIU-SW Buildings. Bids on contracts for construction of two new buildings at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern may be called in August. B. D. Hudgens, vice-president of business affairs, said yesterday. The projects include an office building for the SIU-SW business division and a similar building for the education division.

Hudgens said the designs were accepted by the Governor's Construction Task force, a 15-member board, and that the action is expected to free money for the buildings at their meeting July 15.

Nine Football Cheerleaders Chosen at GCHS

Nine young women at Granite City High School were chosen this week to lead local supporters in cheering the Warrior football team to victory this fall.

The successful cheerleader candidates are Becca Ashcraft, Pat Beljanski, Vicki Butch, Paula Danco, Diane Gowan, Becky Halbrook, Phyllis Mercer, Leanna Phillips and Carol Roberts.

Their selection was announced by Miss Barbara L. Kerch, coordinator-consultant for the Granite City School District's senior and junior high girls' and elementary physical education programs.

Girls interested in achieving cheerleader status are eligible to make application after belonging for one year to the high school's Red Peppers booster club.

The candidates take part in six practice sessions to review basic fundamentals of cheerleading and afford each candidate an equal opportunity to learn new techniques, Miss Kerch explained.

The applicants audition for a select committee of faculty members, including coaches and sponsors of different school organizations, whose task it is to narrow down the large group to 15 girls.

Finalists then perform before a student tryout panel, consisting of the presidents of various school clubs and councils and representatives of the Red Peppers and similar active organizations.

It is the student leaders who make the final selection of girls to represent the school next season, Miss Kerch noted.

MR. AND MRS. HARRY PECK, 1828 Fifth St., Madison, who were honored on their 50th wedding anniversary at a reception given by their children at the Tri-Cities Area YMCA.

Harry Pecks Observe Golden Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Peck, 1828 Fifth St., Madison, renewed their wedding vows at a reception in honor of their golden wedding anniversary given this week at the Tri-Cities Area YMCA.

The Rev. C. M. O'Guin officiated at the ceremony.

Hosts for the celebration were the couple's four sons and daughters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Randall Peck of Fullerton, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Richard Peck of Madison, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Peck of Collinsville and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Peck of Granite City.

Mr. Peck, 70, and his wife, the former Miss Clara Durnburg, were married on April 15, 1922 in Madison. He is employed in the Bluff Furnace Division at Granite City Steel Co.

DAVID GANFIELD

Mental Health Board Hosts Dinner Meeting

David Ganfield, a communication specialist with the Illinois Department of Mental Health, will be the principal speaker at the annual dinner meeting of the board of directors of the Mental Health Clinic, Quad-City Center.

The dinner dance will be held at 7:30 p.m. Friday in the 300 Room of Tri-Mor Bowl. It was announced today by Darwin Segel, president of the local group.

The guest speaker, who lives in Deerfield, Ill., will show a movie relating to the communication aspect of the mental health programs.

International Festival Being Held at Campus

An International Festival is being held today and Friday in the University Center at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern. Arranged by a committee of foreign students, the festival is open to the public.

From 10 a.m. until 3 p.m. both days international folk music will be heard throughout the center and international artifacts will be on display in Goshen Lounge.

Kamil Winter of the mass communications department gave an eyewitness report on Communism in East Europe today.

Foreign foods were served today in the University Center cafeteria, featuring dishes from China, Honduras, India, Pakistan, Germany, the Philippines and Latin America. During the same hours on Friday Latin American food will be served in the cafeteria.

A panel discussion among foreign and native students and faculty will be held from 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Friday in the Goshen Lounge.

The two-day festival will close with an international coffee house at St. Johns Methodist Church in Edwardsville from 8:30 to 10:30 p.m. Friday.

Two Students Receive Madison Awards

Annual scholarships for two Madison High School graduates now in college and planning to become teachers were presented by Madison Federation of Teachers Local 763 Monday at Teachers School.

Receiving the $330 awards were Shirley Sue Jimerson, 1028 Market St., Venice, and Donna Monaghan, 1811 Sixth St., Madison, both juniors at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern.

The presentations were made by Autumn Jimerson, scholarship committee chairman, and Willie Dennis, union president. Serving on the committee were Nick Hesser, Lilly Valley, Evelyn Ritz and Sharon Bartels. The scholarship fund is aided by the Granite City Steel Co. Employees 30-Minute Club.

Prather JHS to Hold Book Fair on Friday

Prather Junior High School will hold its fourth annual Book Fair during lunch-study periods from 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. Friday in the main corridor of the school.

It is being sponsored by the seventh grade class with Mrs. Evelyn Laux, librarian, as faculty sponsor.

Paperback and hardback books of various types have been donated by students and faculty and will be on sale with proceeds going to the school library.

Students currently are sorting and pricing the books.

Auto Windows Shot Out

Thomas Cavanaugh, 2406 Delmar Ave., reported at 11 p.m. Tuesday that a young male shot all side windows and the windshield of his 1960 auto parked at his home on the evening of April 3. He said the same person had shot three holes in his 1950 truck, also parked at home.

State Aid Check Stolen

Jane Postischel, 1628 Delmar Ave., reported at 11:40 a.m. Tuesday that her state aid check for $125 was stolen from her mail box.

MR. AND MRS. GARY JOHN WELLEN, who were united in marriage at Sacred Heart Catholic Church. The bride is the former Miss Lois Ann Marquardt, a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Willmann, 2510 Hodges Ave.

Lois Marquardt Becomes Bride of Gary J. Wellen

Wedding vows were exchanged by Miss Lois Ann Marquardt and Gary John Wellen in a double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Joseph Enright on March 11 at Sacred Heart Roman Catholic Church. The bride is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Willmann, 2510 Hodges Ave., and the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Wellen, reside at Rural Route One, Troy, Ill.

The bride was escorted by her uncle, the bride was attired in a floor length, A-line satin gown, designed with a fitted bodice and Chantilly lace with a round neckline and long sleeves. The chapel length train featured a wide band of lace and lacework trimmed the edges. A fingertip bouffant veil was secured with a satin bow and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and red roses. Her only jewelry was blue opal necklace, a gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Barbara Krifka, matron of honor and Mrs. Vicki Crites and Miss Kondra Zobrist, a cousin of the bride, bridesmaids, wore gowns fashioned alike in an Empire style. The attendants carried bouquets of white carnations tipped in pink to match their ruby and pink dresses.

The groom chose Donald Yurk as best man. Groomsmen were Allen Flath and Brad Welten, a brother of the groom. John Brash and Tony Frey served as ushers.

A reception was held at the VFW Hall in Highland after the ceremony. Mrs. Karen Hellrung, a sister of the bride, and Miss Mary D'Arcy, Miss Helen Ambrosch, both cousins of the bride, assisted at the reception. The couple has returned from a wedding trip to Chicago. They are making their home at 211 Powell St., Apt. 6, in Troy.

LOCAL RESIDENTS NAME SECOND SON KYLE JOE

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Braundmeyer, 2228 Nevada Ave., are announcing the birth of their second son on Tuesday at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

The infant has been named Kyle Joe and weighed eight pounds, two ounces. He has an older brother, Kevin. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ray Braundmeyer of Edwardsville, formerly of Granite City.

MARRIED IN APRIL. Airman First Class and Mrs. Dennis James McDuffy, whose wedding took place at Central Christian Church. The bride is the former Miss Lisa Lorraine Brokaw, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Brokaw, 3124 Aubrey Ave.

McDuffy-Brokaw Wedding At Central Christian

Central Christian Church was the scene of the wedding on April 16 of Miss Lisa Lorraine Brokaw, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Brokaw, 3124 Aubrey Ave., and Airman First Class Dennis James McDuffy, son of Mrs. Letha McDuffy, 2915 Illinois Ave.

The Rev. Dr. L. Jim Anthis performed the afternoon ceremony at 2:30 p.m. before an altar decorated with bouquets of white spring flowers.

Wayne Fisher presided at the organ for the soloists, Misses Debbie and Barbara Fox, who sang "We've Only Just Begun" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Wearing a white silk organza gown, designed in an A-line silhouette, the bride was escorted down the white carpeted aisle by her father, who gave her in marriage.

Long full sleeves of embroidered nylon were set in an Empire bodice made with a high neckline. A wide panel of embroidered nylon lace on the front bodice extended into the skirt, and the detachable chapel train was edged in Venice lace and white satin ribbon.

She wore a headpiece of silk organza forming three tiered bows, centered with a small floral cluster of imported lace, to secure an elbow length veil of bridal illusion. Her bouquet was a teardrop arrangement of white carnations.

Mrs. James Buford, matron of honor, chose a ruby-red velvet and pink chiffon gown and the bridesmaids, Miss Shirley Brokaw and Miss Patty Brokaw, sisters of the bride, wore royal blue velvet and pastel blue chiffon dresses.

Their gowns were fashioned with velvet bodices and long sleeves of chiffon cuffed in velvet. Velvet trim was repeated at the high waist and neckline accented with narrow gold braid. On their hair they wore a velvet ring entwined with gold braid and each carried a bouquet of white carnations tipped in colors to match their gowns.

Lisa Reed and Craig Reed, a sister and brother of the groom, served as flower girl and ring bearer, respectively.

Lisa's frock, in a pink fabric, was designed similar to the bridesmaids' dresses, and she carried a basket of flower petals.

Mrs. Brokaw chose for her daughter's wedding, a floor length gown of melon colored crepe, with long sleeves and a sheath skirt. Her corsage was of pink-tipped, white carnations. The groom's mother, Mrs. McDuffy, selected a blue bonded knit dress, featuring chiffon ruffles at the neckline, on the front of the formal length skirt and on the cuffs. She wore a white carnation corsage, tinted blue.

Serving the bridegroom as best man was Mike Allen, Brad Boone, Gene Kuehnel, the groom's cousins, and Jerry Brokaw, a brother of the bride, completed the corps of groomsmen and ushers.

A reception for wedding guests was given by the bride's parents in the church Fellowship Hall, following the ceremony.

After a wedding trip to Tar-A Resort in the Ozarks, the couple will make their home in Sunnymead, Calif., where the groom is stationed with the U. S. Air Force.

Both young people are graduates of Granite City High School. The former Miss Brokaw was a graduate from Granite City School of Beauty Culture.

PHILATHEA CLASS HEARS BEVERLY FARM SINGERS

The Beverly Farms Group Singers entertained the Philathea Class of Niederrhous United Methodist Church Tuesday night with a program of religious and "old" popular songs.

A business meeting was conducted prior to the program in Wesley Hall. Twenty-three members and 13 guests were present.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Emma Schoen, chairman, Miss Ella Ray Smith and Miss Geneva Wallick.

2-Day Special Education Workshop Open to Public

A two-day special education workshop at Southern Illinois University-Southern campus will take place Friday and Saturday under the auspices of the Lewis and Clark Chapter 8 of the Illinois Council of Exceptional Children and SIU-SW Student Chapter 696.

Participation is open to school administrators, teachers, parents and other individuals interested in special education programs. Dr. Leonard Kampwerth reported.

Dr. Kampwerth serves as coordinator of research and evaluation for Project PRIDE (Prescriptive Instruction Development), a Title III program in Madison County Region III Special Education Cooperative.

Although the workshop sessions are designed primarily for teacher appeal, Dr. Kampwerth said that many topics to be presented will be of interest to the general public. "Everyone interested in special education is invited to attend," he added.

Reservations can be made for the 6 p.m. Friday dinner meeting by calling Dr. Kampwerth, at 288-9885, or Mrs. Evelyn Harrison, at 229-1929, after 5 p.m. The dinner session will be held in the Mississippi-Illinois Room at SIU-SW Student Center.

Registration and exhibits will take place in the Peck Building on campus from 2:30 to 4 p.m. Friday. Demonstrations will be given by publishers and suppliers of educational material.

The initial session, at 4 p.m. Friday, will deal with proposed revision of regulations governing the administration and operation of Special Education, presented by Lee Patton of the Office of Superintendent of Public Instruction (OSPI).

An OSPI representative will deliver an address at the dinner meeting concerning mandatory programs for handicapped children starting at age 3 years as specified in House Bill 323, Dr. Kampwerth said.

A continental breakfast will be served from 8:30 to 9:30 a.m. Saturday, followed with a legislative program by Dr. William Whiteside, chairman, SIU-SW Special Education Division.

Other speakers in the morning segment and their topics include Dr. Kampwerth and Henry Muhlhaupt, Project PRIDE director, "Experiments in Reading"; Robert Eberle, project coordinator, Edwardsville Public Schools, "Experience in Elderly Imagery"; and Dr. Jack Rowse, O. D., Alton and Wilbur R. L. Trimpe, Madison County superintendent of schools, "White House Conference on Children and Youth."

A session beginning at 11 a.m. Saturday will focus on "Vocational Education," presented by Phil Mehelec, Granite City School District; "Pre-School Training and Motor Skills," Lloyd Kallal, St. Louis University; and Micro Teaching methods by Dr. Richard Jensen and staff of SIU-SW.

23 Stereo Tapes Stolen

Twenty-three stereo tapes in a brown carrier containing an Explorer emblem were stolen from the auto of Roger Barks, 1129 Meridian St., while it was parked in the 3600 block of Adams Street after 8:15 p.m., he reported at 9:25 p.m. Tuesday. The tapes were valued at $6 to $7 each and the carrier at $13.

Autos in Accident

Autos driven by Larry C. James, 1829 Bremen Ave., who was stopped for traffic, and Mary L. Wolfe, 2011 Amos Ave., were in an accident at 9:20 p.m. Tuesday at Niedringhaus and Madison avenues.

Three Firemen Honored at Venice Council Meeting

Three Venice firemen were honored Tuesday night during the Venice Council meeting.

Mayor John E. Lee presented 25-year service awards to Richard Krause, Harold Koelker Sr., and William Meehan, fire chief.

The service awards were issued by the State of Illinois Department of Law Enforcement, Division of Fire Prevention, and signed by Gov. Richard Ogilvie, Herbert Brown, department director, and Robert E. May, state fire marshal.

The certificates honored each of the firemen "in recognition of his devotion to the Fire Service profession and to his fellow man with honor and integrity."

The council was informed by Eugene G. Moody, executive director of the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council, that the board of directors of the Gateway council has recommended to the Illinois Department of Transportation that the proposed relocation of Broadway be given first priority when State funds are committed for fiscal year 1972.

The council voted to buy a wreath to be placed at the Soldiers Memorial, 13th and Chestnut St., St. Louis, in the annual Memorial Day Service May 28.

Mayor Lee suggested that Jack Tolliver represent the city at the service. The Council concurred.

Police Report Filed

The March police report listed 31 adult and seven juvenile arrests.

The adult arrest included 10 charged with city ordinance violations, 12 traffic violations, two state violations, eight state traffic violations, and nine arrested for other police departments.

The seven juvenile arrests included two arrested for the Granite City police department, one city ordinance violation, one runaway, two arrested for investigation and one arrested for the previous quarter. The police report said $289.10 in fines was received from the courts in disposition of the cases.

On recommendation of Les M. Devany Sr. and William Spencer, members of the Venice Board of Police Commissioners, Roderick Bauder was appointed a probationary patrolman.

The quarterly report of the Venice Fire department for Jan. 1 through March 30 listed six house fires, industry, 5, commercial, 1; grass and rubbish, 18; cars and trucks, 5; out of town, 3; and false alarms, 2. The report said the fire loss for the first quarter of 1972 was $13,683.

Approve Building Permits

The council approved building permits for a garage at 1217 Logan St., to be built by Elbert Bennett at a cost of $1,400; a garage to cost $1,000 at 1023 Market St., by Chance Jimeron; and $5,000 in repair work at 547 Mercedia St., repairing fire damage at the home of Eddie Mason.

Mayor Lee pointed out that three young men from Venice have assumed places of leadership, including the presidency, of the Venice Post 104, a law enforcement specialty post.

He said that Mike Bilbrey has been elected as president, Tom Hooks as vice-president and Jeff Tolliver as squad leader of squad three. "The residents of Venice can be proud of these young men," Lee commented.

Mayor Lee instructed Benjamin Honorable, civil defense director, to develop a detailed plan for natural disasters such as tornadoes and fires.

The mayor said he wanted separate plans for the various areas of the city.

The problem of mini-bikes was discussed. Council members noted that youngsters should have a place to ride them, but they can not be allowed on the streets and alleys, as this is in violation of state laws governing their use.

It was suggested the school board might grant permission during certain hours, to permit them to be ridden on the school track.

Mayor Lee informed the council a special meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. April 28 to dispose of all year-end business. The city's fiscal year ends April 30.

Seat DeMolay Officers, Crown New Sweetheart

The Granite City Court of Chevaliers installed officers of James Stuart Chapter, Order of DeMolay, in public ceremonies Tuesday evening at the Masonic Temple.

On the installing team were George Slattery, installing officer; Charles E. Hileman Jr., installing senior counselor; Bruce Hawkins, installing junior counselor; Robert Maxwell, installing marshal; Ronald Jones, installing senior deacon; and Everett G. Steele, installing chaplain.

Hiram B. Ables, master counselor; David Ledbetter, senior counselor; Keith Lee, protem for A. H. "Tim" Noud, junior counselor; John Young, chaplain; Gerald Todd, treasurer; Randol Shrum, senior deacon; Mark Schanuel, protem for Terry Barton, junior deacon; James McCarthy, senior steward; Randy Bergfeld, junior steward; Dewey Obermeier, sentinel; Brian Lee, protem for Steven Phillips, standard bearer; Dean Brown, protem for Dennis Harris, altar boy; Michael Hickey, marshal; Gary Bogovich, orator; Karl Ebrecht, Lindsey Church Jr., James Pomeroy, John Hakkarainen, Danny Jones, Robert McCoid, Mike Schanuel, preceptors; and John Motes, protem for Ronald Jones, scribe.

The Nine O'clock Interpolation was then given by the installing chaplain, Everett Steele.

Mother Escorted

During the installation the Master Councilor's Mother, Shirley Ables, was escorted to the altar by the marshal Michael Hickey where Ables gave a short speech of appreciation and presented his mother with a bouquet of roses. After receiving the gavel of his office Hiram introduced the installing team and recognized Miss Debbie Hightower as soloist. Both Ann Ledbetter as accompanist.

Introduced and escorted to the East was Miss Denise Lewis, the chapter's 1971 DeMolay Sweetheart and first runner-up to the 1971 State Sweetheart. The 1971 Sweetheart finalists escorted to the East were Miss Carol Coghlin by Dewey Obermeier, Miss Kathy Farnley by Keith Lee and Miss Carla Mathias by Paul Boyer.

Ables then introduced the State Master Councilor Chuck Hileman who presented greetings from the jurisdiction of Illinois.

Mrs. Lois Hollenbeck, president of the Mothers Club, was introduced and she introduced the officers. Mrs. Hollenbeck was presented a corsage.

Speaking briefly were Mrs. Wanda Kincaid, worthy high priestess of Gabriel White Shrine 78; Walter Bergfeld, district deputy of the Royal Arch Masons; Dr. Amos Rode, associate guardian, Bethel #43, International Order of Job's Daughters; and honored queen, Shirley Brokaw, who introduced her officers.

Chapter advisors Charles Meyer presented the past master councilor's jewel to Steven R. Ebrecht, the retiring master councilor. Ebrecht then presented Ables with the master councilor's pin.

Cross of Honor

The DeMolay Cross of Honor was presented to John Michels of Madison by George Slattery, co-chairman of the advisory council. It is the highest advisor's award that can be given by the International Supreme Council and denotes three or more years of service to a DeMolay chapter and outstanding and exceptional efforts in behalf of DeMolay in general. Tangible evidences of the award are a patent, a wallet card and a special gold and red medal suspended from a red ribbon to be worn around the neck.

The master councilor announced the following DeMolay events:

Weekly softball practice at the diamond at corner of Fehling and Namooki roads at 1:30. This will change to a week-day practice after daylight savings time is in effect. Gerald Todd is in charge of softball. The next regular meeting May 2 and a special meeting May 30 to confer the initiatory and DeMolay degrees. Petitions for this class should be in at the May 2 or 16 meetings.

The Job's Daughters club included the installation with "The Forming of the Cross". The Rev. Roy L. Baugh, pastor of Niedringhaus United Methodist Church, pronounced the benediction.

Dancing to the music of "PACE" followed. Refreshments were served by the Mother's Club with Mrs. Peg Mangun as serving chairman. The chapter's 1972 DeMolay Sweetheart and her two attendants were crowned by Miss Denise Lewis, 1971 Sweetheart.

Crowned as 1972 DeMolay Sweetheart was Kathy Farnley. Carol Coghlin was first runner-up and Carla Mathias was second runner-up. For the coronation Miss Lewis was escorted by Hiram Ables. Miss Mathias by Gerald Todd, Miss Coghlin by John Young, and Miss Farnley by David Ledbetter.

Poultry Truck Hits Car

The parked auto of Betty J. Mahl, 2323 Emert Ave., was side-swiped by a poultry truck driven by Isa Khan Canoli, St. Louis, who was forced over by a passing car at 11:20 a.m. Tuesday at 3032 Iowa St.

Theft at Laundromat

Shirley Farris, 3862 Lake St., reported at 2:20 p.m. Tuesday that someone stole the contents of her purse, including a wallet containing $90, at the Speedy Washer Laundromat, 2011 Rock Road.

Trailriders in Parade Saturday, Show Sunday

The Trailriders Saddle Club of Granite City will take part in the community-wide "Pet Parade," sponsored by the Association for the Protection of Animals (APA), scheduled to start at noon Saturday at Civic Park on Niedringhaus Avenue.

Plans for the Trailriders parade participation and the club's second horse show of the season on Sunday were completed at a meeting Tuesday evening.

Gene Jones, president, said the show will get underway at 1 p.m. Sunday at the Trailriders Arena on Chouteau Slough Road, near Rock Road.

The club's initial show earlier this week drew a total of 65 horses and riders. Several area residents registered horses for the first time and were accepted into the club as members, Jones reported.

The president issued an invitation to anyone owning a horse to join the Trailriders in riding in the APA parade Saturday. Riders wishing to do so are asked to contact the club secretary, Miss Patricia Bragley, at 876-6881, for additional information.

Prospective members also may take part in Sunday's show at the club arena, Jones advised.

Bilbrey Installed Head Of Explorer Post 10-4

Michael Bilbrey, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bilbrey, 616 Lincoln Ave., Venice, was installed as the president of Explorer Post 10-4, sponsored by the Madison Lions Club and Police Department, in ceremonies Wednesday.

Bilbrey, a senior at Assumption High School and a member of St. Mark's Church, has been first vice-president of the post.

He also is secretary of the Canokio Lodge, Order of the Arrow, and a member of the staff at Camp Sunnen.

Bill Fox of Madison was installed as first vice-president; Tom Hooks, of Venice, second vice-president; Bill Weidner of Madison, secretary; and Jack Small of Granite City, treasurer. Squad leaders installed were Steve Fisher, of Granite City, Squad One; Dave Mitchell of Madison, Squad Two; Jeff Joliver of Venice, Squad Three; and Randy Affolter of Granite City, Squad Four.

The post will be on a three-day camp out this weekend, to practice basic self defense under the direction of William Steiner, a member of the Madison Police Department, and a patrolman Charles Bridgick, self-defense expert.

Space Problems at Madison Junior High Under Study

Proposals to provide more space at Madison Junior High School next year were discussed by the Madison Board of Education Tuesday night. A special meeting was scheduled Wednesday evening to study possible solutions.

Fred Riddle, district superintendent, told the board that he had investigated the possibility of purchasing portable classrooms, including used portable classrooms for sale by Collinsville school district.

apparent solutions appear unsatisfactory at this time, Virgil Dulgeroff, architect for the district, suggested alternate methods for space be sought.

The junior high school has experienced severe overcrowding since a court order was issued allowing Dunbar School seventh and eighth grade students to transfer to Madison Junior High if they wished.

was authorized to seek one-year extensions for work on Dunbar, Louis Baer and Harris Schools and the junior high school to meet the Life Safety Code requirements.

Theodore Kemp, board member, informed the board that high winds in recent storms blew numerous shingles from the roof of the Dunbar School Annex. He said repairs should be made before leaks damage the roof. The board agreed to discuss the proposed repairs at Wednesday's meeting.

Granite City PRESS-RECORD

Thurs., Apr. 20, 1972 Page 19

Riddle also reported the boilers at the high school and Dunbar School are in need of repair. The board agreed to withhold action until Wednesday's meeting.

Riddle informed the board that roof and gutter repairs to Harris and Blair schools were completed satisfactorily.

Hire Head Start Director
The board approved the hiring of Arthur L. Carter as director of the Summer Head-Start Program for the Madison and Venice schools and endorsed three grant programs including the Work Experience Career Exploratory Program (WCEEP), the Summer Work Study Program and the Family Living and Consumer Education course.

The regular summer school program from June 2 to July 14 was approved.

Riddle was authorized to seek prices on a contract to repair sewing machines in all the district's schools.

Spring trips were approved for several classes including the high school band trip to Elkhart, Ind., and Notre Dame University which began yesterday and will continue through tomorrow.

Trips Scheduled
Other trips approved include the Dunbar School fifth-grade trip to Springfield May 10, the Madison High School Title I trip to Springfield May 5, and Harris School trips to Grant's Farm for third-grade students, May 4, to Monk's Mound May 12 for second graders, to the St. Louis Zoo May 18 for first graders and to Grant's Farm and Wilson Park May 24 for kindergarten students.

The annual junior-senior prom set for Saturday, April 29, at Southern Illinois University, Southwestern, also was approved.

Use of the Harris School playground for a citywide hula-hoop and frisbee contest in May was granted. The board also gave permission for the class of 1982 to be seated in a special section at the 1972 Madison High School commencement program.

A final examination schedule for the high school from May 15 to May 26 was introduced and approved.

Board members authorized payment of $2,382 in legal fees to William Kinder, school district attorney.

Board members were invited to attend the annual North Central Evaluation organizational dinner at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday at Charlie's Restaurant. The evaluation team will audit the high school April 25 through April 27.

Directors to Determine Fate of River Festival

The Illinois Arts Council may contribute $50,000 to help underwrite the cost of the Mississippi River Festival at SIU-SW this summer, the same amount provided last year, Stanley Freeling, council chairman, indicated this week.

Official word on the amount, however, will not be known until the council meets in June, he noted. Festival backers had asked the council for $120,000.

A meeting of the Mississippi River Festival executive board is set Tuesday to review the arts council information and discuss whether the summer music series will be continued for a fourth season, Peter Paetrich, Festival director, said.

Earlier this year, organizers expressed belief the festival may be discontinued for lack of funds. "I don't know what the decision of the executive committee will be concerning another season," Paetrich said.

For the 1972 six-week music series featuring the St. Louis Symphony orchestra and about a dozen folk-rock concerts, the festival directors had estimated income at $300,000, including $350,000 from ticket sales. A local fund drive was expected to raise an additional $20,000.

SIU-SW provides the site and supporting services. Symphony programming has been scheduled and almost all the pop-rock artists lined up, Paetrich noted.

Town Board Approves $350,959 Budget Bill

A Granite City Township budget of $350,959 for the 1972-73 fiscal year was approved by the city council convened as the town board Monday night.

The budget sets up appropriations of $137,459 in the town fund, $200,000 for the general assistance fund and $13,500 for municipal retirement payments.

The appropriation bill was approved in a public hearing April 11. The township's fiscal year begins March 1 and ends Feb. 28.

Budget figures in the new bill total only $1,461 more than the 1971-72 budget of $349,498.

The town board also approved April bills totaling $3,365 in the town fund, and $7,052 in the general assistance fund.

GC Kiwanians, Wives

Attend Spring Meeting

Granite City Kiwanis Club members and their wives attended a Spring Inspirational meeting in O'Fallon Monday evening in lieu of the club's regular meeting.

The meeting was attended by more than 150 Kiwanians and their wives from the Madison and St. Clair counties and Kiwanis state governor-elect Lou Bouillon.

Local members who attended the meeting included Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Gillie, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Toundas, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Schumme, Mr. and Mrs. Wilhelm Verschuyt,
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schneider, Al Gross and President and Mrs. Darrell Weible of the

City Auto Stickers

On Sale at City Hall

Granite City auto wheel tax licenses for 1972 are on sale in the office of the city clerk in the city hall and are due on May 1.

License fees are $3 for autos and $8, $10, $12, $14, $16 and $25 for trucks. The stickers, red, dark blue and white, show the city flag and a map of the state pointing to the location of Granite City.

Mail orders will be accepted this year as a convenience to residents, according to Police Chief Ronald J. Veizer and City Clerk Robert Stevens.

Persons wishing to do so may mail an application containing their name, address, make and model of an auto and state license number to the city clerk's office, and the city license will be forwarded by mail.

Two Dumps in Area Cited for Violations

Two private tracts in the Eagle Park Acres area being used to dump trash are among six in Madison County, to be closed by the Environmental Protection Agency for being in violation of state open dumping laws.

Though the dumping is unauthorized by the owners, they were charged with failure to obtain a proper permit, allowing open dumping, failure to limit access to the property and failure to cover the refuse with two feet of earth.

The notification constitute warnings rather than legal actions, though legal action could result if the areas pose a threat to public health, an EPA official said.
Paul T. Hawkins, Madison County sanitation and pollution official, said the county would order compliance with agency ordinances within 30 days.

'Phoenix' to Play at 'Y' Teen Town Dance

The YMCA Teen Town will feature "Phoenix" at a dance from 8:30 to 11:30 Saturday.
The group has played at the "Y" on many occasions and is one of the most popular bands to play here.

The final dance of the spring season is scheduled for May 20 at 8:30 to 11:30 Saturday.
The band will be announced later.

Library Week Programs Planned in Local Area

National Library Week is being observed this week at the Venice, Madison and Granite City public libraries, using the theme, "Reading Makes the World Go 'Round'."

"We believe that books bring people together and we invite all students and their parents to visit the libraries and become better acquainted with the material available," Mrs. Sybil
Robb, Venice librarian, said.

A display of new books will be on exhibit at each of the libraries. Gifts will be presented to each person who visits the libraries this week.

Regular hours are observed at Venice from noon to 5 p.m.
each day with the exception of Tuesdays and Thursdays, when the library is open until 7 p.m.
Saturday hours are noon to 5 p.m.

Elementary school classes are visiting the Granite City library where the center of interest has been the junior department.
Mrs. Mary Gene Knaflke, librarian, reports.

Gifts are being given to visitors and all fines due on books returned during the week will be waived, she added.

The library is open from 8:45 a.m. to 5:15 p.m. Monday and Friday, 8:45 a.m. to 8:30 Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday and 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday.
The Madison library featured story hours for school children on Monday and Wednesday after school, will present this again Saturday afternoon, it was announced by Mrs. Louise Lewis, librarian.

Miller Accepted for

Bernard S. Miller, 1618 Lincoln Blvd., is one of 14 area high school juniors to be accepted for early admission in an experimental program at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern.

The students will be enrolled for the summer quarter and will have the option of returning to their high school for the senior year or remaining at the university, provided they maintain a 3.5 grade point average on a 5-point scale during the summer.

Those who fail to maintain the 3.5 grade point average must complete high school diploma requirements before continuing university work. Credits earned by students who return to high school will count toward SIU-SW graduation requirements when the students re-enroll.

At last, a quality encyclopedia you can afford! The brand new Funk & Wagnalls costs only $1.99 a volume. Try the first volume for only 49¢.

For a limited time only, we're offering the complete 25-volume set of the Funk & Wagnalls New Encyclopedia—so new it's never been sold before.

Don't let the price fool you. Funk & Wagnalls is one of the most recognized names in encyclopedia publishing. Only because they sell millions of volumes this way—direct to you through supermarkets—can this quality encyclopedia be offered to you at this price.

Funk & Wagnalls New Encyclopedia is also easy to buy. Instead of buying the complete set all at once, you buy a volume or two a week when you shop.

Of course, selling an encyclopedia volume by volume also makes it easy not to buy. So it had better be good enough to keep people coming back for more.

It is.

The Funk & Wagnalls New Encyclopedia contains over 100,000 indexed subjects, as many as encyclopedias costing hundreds of dollars more.

It has over 7,000,000 words in 12,016 pages with over 7,000 illustrations—many in full color.

It was written and edited by over 500 scholars, including Nobel and Pulitzer Prize winners.

Still, it's written in clear, simple English. (The Funk & Wagnalls is a family encyclopedia. It's written so both children and parents can understand it.)

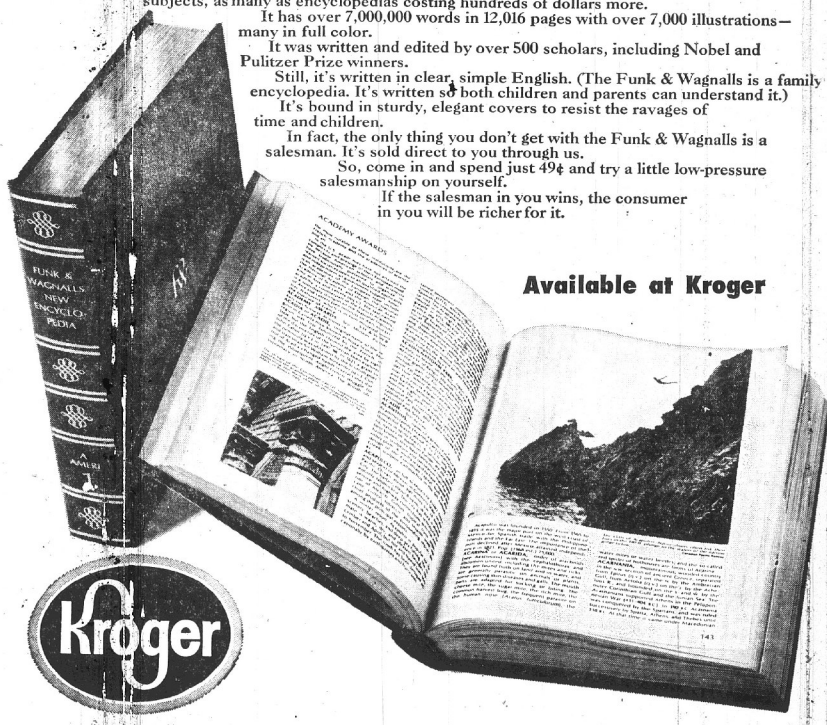

It's bound in sturdy, elegant covers to resist the ravages of time and children.

In fact, the only thing you don't get with the Funk & Wagnalls is a salesman. It's sold direct to you through us.

So, come in and spend just 49¢ and try a little low-pressure salesmanship on yourself.

If the salesman in you wins, the consumer in you will be richer for it.

War Equipment Finding Peaceful Uses at Home

By EDWARD NEILAN
Copley News Service

Washington — The wobbled-wheeled roller being used to grade new bicycle lanes through Rock Creek Park in the nation's capital has freshly painted signs on its sides, which say "National Park Service."

Four months ago, the $4,665 piece of road-building equipment was being used to clear a path through the dense jungle of the South Vietnamese highlands.

The lettering on its sides then said, "U. S. Army Corps of Engineers."

"bring home the war equipment" is making notable progress. The success of the drive, called "Project Home Run," is all the more remarkable in the face of the American reputation for leaving war material scattered across the battlefield in the hands of local scrap speculators.

So far (as of the second week of December, 1971) the acquisition cost of equipment returned from Vietnam to the United States under the project totals $45.2 million. The campaign began in November, 1969.

Distribute Equipment Of the total, approximately $14.1 million worth of the property has been distributed by the General Services Administration — the government's house-keeping agency — to a number of federal agencies. "It's the taxpayers who benefit from this program," says Robert L. Kunzig, GSA head who planned the drive. The Department of Defense, Health, Education and Welfare and the Veterans Administration also cooperated to help avoid the massive waste of goods and material that occurred after World Wars I and II and the Korean War.

Kunzig said the taxpayers gain "because they have already paid for the property. They'll now see it put to further use in veterans' hospitals in the training of unemployed and underprivileged persons in vocational fields and in many other programs such as pollution control, conservation, and law enforcement."

As provided by law, Kunzig said, federal agencies have first choice of the property followed by schools, colleges, hospitals and civil defense agencies.

To Cut Costs "The use of surplus military supplies for civilian needs is a part of President Nixon's drive to reduce federal expenditures," Kunzig said. Some $21.6 million worth of property is still in government warehouses waiting to be distributed. Still more is aboard ship en route back to U. S. ports from Southeast Asia.

Among the agencies which have received equipment run-der the project are the Bureau of Indian Affairs in the Department of the Interior, U. S. Forest Service, Justice Department, Federal Aviation Administration, Department of Labor, Post Office Department, Veterans Administration, Atomic Energy Commission and ACTION, the citizen's service corps.

ACTION, the umbrella organization that embraces the Peace Corps, and VISTA as well as several other formerly independent "citizens" bodies, has been increasingly active in the Project Home Run drive.

For example, in a dockside ceremony at Long Beach, Calif., recently, the GSA and Defense Department turned over to ACTION Director Joe Blatchford some $6.2 million worth of surplus equipment just back from Vietnam.

Blatchford handed keys to a bus to VISTA volunteer Mrs. Cecilia Stone, of Palmdale, Calif. She is one of 12 VISTA volunteers at Arizona job colleges where 90 low income or unemployed families are enrolled in a program stressing full family participation.

Other military supplies unloaded and handed over to ACTION at the Long Beach ceremony were distributed to the Office of Economic Opportunity, Labor Department, and HEW-financed poverty projects.

Another vehicle unloaded at the Long Beach ceremony was a Jeep, the keys of which Blatchford handed over to VISTA volunteer Jerry Sura of Holly, Mich. Sura drove the surplus Jeep to his assignment at the Walker River Indian Reservation in Schura, Nev.

Lawn & Garden

LOW SPOTS IN LAWNS
You can gradually level your lawn by adding small amounts of soil to the depressions.

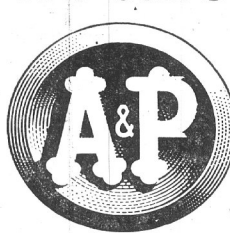

This layers of soil on top of your present lawn grass will gradually level your lawn without killing the existing grass. Two or three applications a year during the growing season is not harmful providing each layer is 1/4 to 1/2 inch thick. Use a home mixture of sand and soil or sandy soil. Your lawn spreader will help you to get even coverage.

When deeper depressions occur you can make instant repairs by filling the depression with topsoil and regrading the area. Spring rains and cool weather are ideal combinations for reseeding and small scale repairs. Local sod growers often have special arrangements for small cash and carry orders.

PANSIES FOR YOUR GARDEN
Several weeks of spectacular beauty are yours when you plant pansies as a patio or doorway plant. An ideal situation for pansies is a partially shaded cool location. Heavy shade will reduce flowering. Pansies must be well watered for good performance. Mixing peat or compost with the soil promotes good growth and best use of a regular water supply.

Good Deeds Can Have Evil Results; Vital That County Learn All Development Facts

"Shoot first and ask questions later."
"Give them a 'fair' trial and then hang them."

Such sentiment recalls the days of the Wild West and "frontier justice." It has no place in Madison County in 1972.

In the interim, however, and responsibility, we have been urging that even an unpopular development proposal like that of the Madison mayor be given some kind of hearing before the "hanging" takes place.

We also have been asking that final action on a proposed Madison County land use and transportation plan follow, rather than precede, a public airing of opinions—including all points of view—on the final wording of the plan.

The St. Louis Army Engineer Corps district engineer agreed with this point here last weekend—that a land use plan is needed and it was left up to the majority today without further information, it would die. A lot of lynchings unquestionably represented the majority wish of the mobs who carried them out, but that doesn't mean the people were right—only that they were successful.

Reasonable people can and should decide issues, wherever possible, after reasonable procedures and discussion. There really isn't any acceptable substitute for this kind of process, difficult though it may be after emotions have been aroused.

We have not been supported or attacked the mobile home-apartment-golf course-commercial-industrial project in eastern Chouteau Township and western Edwardsville Township because no one yet has presented specifics which show it is worthy or unworthy.

Such details may be provided soon. Certainly, what with all the "sound and fury" that has been generated, the only way the project could ever be implemented is if it in fact is "aqueous clean," with clearly no adverse effect on anyone in any way. At this stage, we just don't know if it will measure up; that's a tall order.

What we do know is that a lot of generalizations about Madison County which have been voiced and written just aren't true.

The more you know, the more you realize you don't know. The studies we have made cast extreme doubt on certain statements made by certain Missourians and a federal administrator. These misstatements currently are being disseminated.

Some problems faced by this county unquestionably are serious, but many aren't as they have been pictured. Overstatements and sweeping conclusions abound. Surely these will be pointed out by Madison County authorities.

ties and by the Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan Area Planning Commission if given time. The danger is that the Quad-Cities and Madison County are going to be given such a "black eye" by well-meaning, sincere people that later information will not matter; the truth will have become irrelevant.

Most of those labeling Madison County as unfit really don't want to make it a "ghost area." But that is precisely what they may accomplish, thanks to a "little help from our friends" in St. Louis and Chicago.

News media, we are sorry to say, unintentionally have contributed to misunderstanding and misinformation through words, pictures and cartoons, including those related to the truly sad drainage dilemmas aggravated by this month's heavy rains.

One of the papers once had a column, "The Two-Edged Sword." It is this concern, that words and deeds cut both ways, that good deeds can sometimes do great wrongs, which prompts a renewed plea for caution—in both developing new areas and in preventing their development.

A lot of eyes are going to be opened in the next few weeks in regard to this county. Let's wait for what will be said. Let's not "shoot first and ask questions later."

Undeveloped Area as Proposed by Planner

The map at the right, from the proposed Madison County land use-transportation plan, shows the area between Highways 11 and 137 which would be left totally undeveloped; it is the unshaded section running vertically through the middle of the map. Large dotted lines refer to the county's five planning districts; parts of Districts 1, 2, 3 and 4 are shown. Authorities say that the net result of the "green belt" would be to virtually end Quad-City residential development.

Letters Are Helpful in Illuminating All Sides of Subjects Affecting the Public

Rodney Dangerfield, the comedian, gets a surefire laugh with his plaintive statement that "we old-timers don't get any respect anymore." We feel a bit like him after learning of a critical comment which concluded that, because a newspaper takes or doesn't take a particular stand, it isn't interested in publishing dissenting views. As we have said during election campaigns and at other times in the teens, 1920s, '30s, '40s, '50, '60s and '70s, letters on all sides of public issues are welcomed—especially those which disagree with other letter writers or the Press-Record or public officials or the prevailing tide of opinion.

"Pro" and "anti" letters are not only permitted but actively encouraged so that the Forum can serve as a real "two-way street"—helping democracy function by illuminating all facets of fact and opinion, within the limits of decency and civility. It's always been that way and it always will be.

Venus, Moon Shed Light on a World Whose Cares Seem Small in Such a Vast Universe

The cares of the workaday world continue, but somehow seem more and more distant from our front lawn this week at the crescent moon and, above it, brightly-shining Venus.

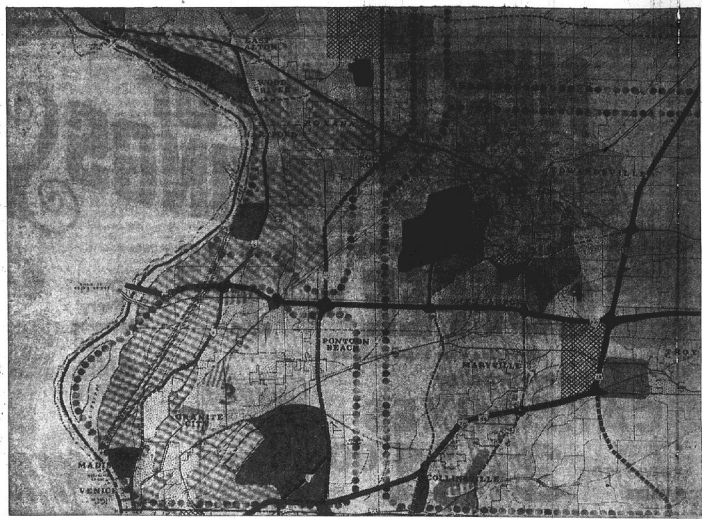

The "space spectacular" created by the juxtaposition of several planets focused thoughts on the moon and the earth's microcosmic size in relation to the rest of the universe.

Community, state, national and world issues remain valid concerns, but are a bit easier to keep in perspective when we gaze at the awesome beauties of space glimpsed on a spring night.

What we do know is that a lot of generalizations about Madison County which have been voiced and written just aren't true.

The more you know, the more you realize you don't know. The studies we have made cast extreme doubt on certain statements made by certain Missourians and a federal administrator. These misstatements currently are being disseminated.

Some problems faced by this county unquestionably are serious, but many aren't as they have been pictured. Overstatements and sweeping conclusions abound. Surely these will be pointed out by Madison County authorities.

Winter Wonderland

By BILLY WINTER
Editor, Press-Record

size guitar, and since he occasionally enjoys watching "Laugh-In" on which Tiny Tim first made an impact on the public, I suspect he enjoyed the evening.

Tiny Tim is not precisely my "cup of tea" but his performance in St. Louis showed that he garnered considerable musical competence during the long years of working at New York area night clubs for small earnings as "Larry Love."

It was not until he hit upon the fictional name made famous by Bob Cratchett's son in Dickens' Christmas story that the far-out vocalist moved into the high-paid ranks of show business.

He began his show this week by reciting song hits of 50 and 60 years ago.

His basic approach was reminiscent of Mitch Miller's singalong television show: Sing it straight as if you meant every word, disregarding however quaint the passing years may have made the phrases sound.

Then he moved into a fast-paced medley of songs ranging from "Tiptoe Through the Tulips" to "Five Foot Two, Eyes of Blue," pounding out a rapid rhythm with his feet while gradually progressing through the years to relatively modern songs.

His vibrant effects seemed to appeal to the crowd, and for various numbers he displayed vocal virtuosity ranging from falsetto to bass.

Probably like Andy Williams' attitude toward "Moon River" and Judy Garland's toward "Over the Rainbow," he has no doubt tired of singing "Tiptoe." But he relented and presented it as an encore after several requests for it from the audience.

Next was another big seller for him, "Earth Angel," and finally, "God Bless America."

He may be sad these days due to the break-up of his marriage to "Miss Tiptoe," but he seemed to be in good spirits and blew a lot of kisses to show his appreciation of the applause.

It's an act hard to copy or even describe and, for better or worse, he has left an impact on the entertainment industry.

As noted, he has become fairly wealthy from his break through into "show biz" prominence.

But he apparently still remembers the periods of hardship and shabby clothes because he was willing to spend the intermission posing with fans, both youngsters and ladies, after leaving the stage.

We were charged $3 for the color print and Tiny presumably received a percentage of the "tip."

We tie he took off and threw to the under the show, and the autograph message he later wrote on it, were free, though.

Topic A—Newscoy Spindle; Topic B—Tiny Tim Plays a Tiny Guitar

We'll cover two topics today, one with an elegy to the copy book or spindle or spile. The thin metal cylinder may not date as far back in journalistic history as the time when Gutenberg invented movable type, but it surely goes back several generations.

As anyone knows, you can't hardly put out a newspaper without a green eyeshade, plenty of books on which to spike news articles, correspondence, memos and notes—and lots and lots of coffee.

Well, we don't really wear eyeshades but we do consume plenty of coffee. And, until the Occupational Health and Safety Act was adopted, there was a liberal sprinkling of spikes on desks, walls, machines and miscellaneous furniture.

Drafts and desk disarray long ago led to the belief that spindles were useful in securing a semi-permanent collection of papers in a specific sequence. Open doors and passing people might whisk loose sheets onto the floor, but not those which had been spiked.

The trouble is, some agency administrators concluded, you can hurt yourself on a copy hook. And he's right. The "Earth Angel" selections as "Tiptoe Through the Tulips" is a lullaby.

Since my 101-year-old is taking lessons on a conventional piano, I have decided to write a piece about the piano.

What are these goals? Camperships for the emotionally disturbed children, seminars on detecting children with emotional problems for teachers and parents, evaluation of the singing and Shelter Care Home's purchase of craft materials for the Day Treatment Center and purchase of craft materials for patients in the Madison County Unit at Alton State Hospital.

We provide basic sitting services for the Madison County Unit at Alton State Hospital. We also maintain an information and referral service for residents of Madison County. All but 10% of all money collected will be put back into Madison County.

Some of our achievements are: Christmas gift program, evaluation of children's program at Alton State Hospital, completion and distribution of a directory of mental health services in Madison County, a speakers' bureau, maintaining an informational and referral service, arranging for (free) bowling for patients at Alton State Hospital, an active legislative committee, and the launching of the first Day Treatment Center in Madison County.

State Status—Governor Race Will Be Lively

By RAY SERATI
Opoley News Service

SPRINGFIELD — The Democratic Party's gubernatorial nominee—Daniel Walker—continues to grab headlines.

This time he has called for the resignation of three candidates who will be running on the ticket in the November general election, including the lieutenant governor candidate, Neil Hartigan.

This was Walker's first big move since he defeated the heavy favorite for the nomination, Lt. Gov. Paul Simpson in the March primary election.

Walker called on Hartigan, U. S. Senate nominee Rep. Pucinski and Attorney General nominee Sen. Thomas Lyons, all of Chicago, to resign their posts as ward committeemen in the Chicago Democratic Party structure.

This is Walker's way of trying to break the influence of Chicago's Mayor Richard J. Daley, Pucinski, Hartigan and Lyons all were picked for the posts during state-making sessions headed by Daley.

Hartigan trounced the lieutenant governor candidate chosen by Walker—Carbondale Mayor Neil Eckert.

Walker went up and down the state denouncing what he called "machine politics." He was also critical of Mayor Daley and now the apparently will continue on through the November election.

Walker may be taking a big gamble, assuming that people are tired of machine politics. Practically everyone who runs for some type of an office has a machine or organization pushing him or her candidacy.

Suppose the Chicago Democrats end up "taking a powder" in the November election? There would all of the Democratic votes come from, since Democrats in Illinois are loyal to the Republican Party, could it?

A check of the Illinois voting records show that, in the main, Democrats carry Chicago by when they win the gubernatorial race.

Of course, the $94 question is: Will Daley take this latest challenge from Walker with a grain of salt?

There are those who say he won't.

Some political students under the Capitol Dome feel that Daley won't say a great deal in public, mainly because of the present attitude of the voters.

If the voters continue to indicate they don't look favorably on the long-time incumbent of the governor's office, Daley won't say a thing publicly. But you can still bet that the wires will be buzzing on the fifth floor of Chicago City Hall.

Downstate Democrats may not look kindly on Walker because of his comments. They are saying he is trying to split up the party.

At any rate, Illinois' 1972 gubernatorial race is going to be a lively one.

BUILD HOMES INSTEAD OF MOBILE HOME PARK
To the Editor:

Can you imagine what 3,000 mobile homes will look like in a 72-acre tract east of Granite City in a new proposed development. Included also are 80 or so apartments which will have few taxpaying citizens, adding also to the burden of the property owners.

The $100 tax on mobile homes is inadequate, relative to the load it will project on property owners, relative to the schools and other services for which they will have to pay the burden.

The Arlington subdivision is no comparison to the 72-acre tract. If developers want to construct something of quality and permanence, why don't they develop something of this nature out of this area. We have two mobile parks or more now.

I agree with the opposition, and a school officer in keeping this development shelved till something better comes up to add to the county's quality home development, where the homeowner will pay his share of the cost of the taxes, taxes, taxes.

FIFTH STREET RESIDENT
VOLUNTEER GROUP AIDS HANDICAPPED AND ILL

To the Editor:
There may be some public confusion about the identity and role of the Madison County Association for Mental Health. The association is a volunteer group of laymen in Madison County, composed of quality and the improved care and treatment of the mentally ill and handicapped.

Its membership consists of sixty citizens of Madison County, and is made up of a board of directors and a general membership.

The chapter is among 44 across the state, affiliated with the Illinois Association for Mental Health, which has as its main purpose legislation and protection of chapters.

Name and address must accompany each letter but will not be revealed if anonymity is requested. Communications of less than 250 words will be given preference. All are subject to condensation and grammatical changes. Those libelous or not in good taste will be rejected or edited.

tomobile. To next proceeded to go where the car had been towed, to pay the tow charges and also to buy another battery and cables.

We wish to commend our officers for their great prevention crime. Our city of Madison would be in a great deal of trouble.

What are these goals? Camperships for the emotionally disturbed children, seminars on detecting children with emotional problems for teachers and parents, evaluation of the singing and Shelter Care Home's purchase of craft materials for the Day Treatment Center and purchase of craft materials for patients in the Madison County Unit at Alton State Hospital.

We provide basic sitting services for the Madison County Unit at Alton State Hospital. We also maintain an information and referral service for residents of Madison County. All but 10% of all money collected will be put back into Madison County.

Some of our achievements are: Christmas gift program, evaluation of children's program at Alton State Hospital, completion and distribution of a directory of mental health services in Madison County, a speakers' bureau, maintaining an informational and referral service, arranging for (free) bowling for patients at Alton State Hospital, an active legislative committee, and the launching of the first Day Treatment Center in Madison County.

Richard W. Carter, Board member of the Madison County Association for Mental Health

It is also affiliated with the National Association for Mental Health, which concerns itself mainly with research, prevention and improved methods and services in diagnosis and treatment.

To clarify further, the Madison County Association for Mental Health is not affiliated with the Madison County Mental Health Board, commonly known as the 708 Board.

The 708 Board's major concern is funding, with county tax monies, the mental health programs in Madison County, and this board is appointed by the

APRIL 20, 1947
Unable to obtain easements through two tracts of potential subdivision land, one on each side of Nameoki Road north of Community High School, and fearful that condemnation of the property would be too expensive in proportion to the benefits, the East Side Levee and Sanitary District Board and Tri-City Chamber of Commerce Drainage Committee plan to revise the proposed Nameoki drainage project to exclude the two tracts. Under the original plan, a drainage ditch was to have been constructed through the Rode farm and Fehling estate as well as through other farms from Nameoki to Horseshoe Lake.

Roca Club to Honor Advisors on Saturday

Members of the Roca Young Men's Club will devote Saturday to their advisors, Mike Jesse and Harry Disk, in observance of their Founders Day.

Plans for the event were made at a business meeting Sunday which was attended by five new members.

The club is planning a hayride in the near future, and tentative plans have been made for other events during the summer.

Air Force Announces Choice of Assignments

A new program, initiated by the U. S. Air Force Air Training Command, which became effective Jan. 1, allows some Air Force technical training students the opportunity to trade job assignments upon completion of their training courses.

It is the responsibility of the individual student to find another willing to make the swap. Both students must be graduates of the same course, possess the same grade/rank and Air Force job code, be the same sex and concur in the exchange of assignments in writing. Students are allowed up to five days in which to locate an individual to swap assignments. This is one example of the "People Pleasing" innovations being developed in today's Air Force. More information may be obtained from M. Sgt. Don McCrory, 650 Missouri Ave., East St. Louis, 1-274-1244.

'George M' Continues At Assumption High

The Assumption High School Theatre will continue its presentation of the spring musical "George M" at 8 p.m. Friday, Saturday and Sunday following opening performances last Friday and Sunday.

The show will feature the original Broadway costumes and a 21-piece orchestra. It is the first musical for Assumption since last year's "Hello, Dolly!" and is a musical adaptation of the life of George M. Cohan. It includes 23 of Cohan's biggest hits.

Van McCoy Puts Talent As Singer to Good Use

By JUDY HUGG
Copley News Service

For years Van McCoy has been making stars out of other artists by writing and producing material for them.

True, not all singers can write nor all writers sing, but Van is an exception as his album "Soul Improvisations" demonstrates.

At last the Buddha Record artist has stepped from behind the scenes and recorded a dozen of his own songs by himself. It is a warm and beautiful platter, with just the right amount of soul, blues and jazz to make it extremely enjoyable.

The album, however, isn't Van's first attempt at singing since his musical background dates back to the age of 4 when he started taking piano lessons. About a year after his lessons had begun, he and his brother Norman, who played the violin, hid the road for personal appearances, singing at every ladies' tea that they could find. Tapering off during his school days, Van's musical influence came primarily from the radio. This brought about his first experience in the writing field at the age of 12.

First Composition

"I remember thinking that I must be able to write songs as good as those I heard on the radio," he recalled. "Looking back on my first composition, though, it really was dreadful. You know, one of those 'I Love You—the sky is blue—do you love me too' type of song. But, at the time, I was very impressed with my accomplishment."

During his college years, in which he was studying to become a psychiatrist because

"that was a very 'in' thing at the time," he found time to sing with a group called the Starlighters.

College was dropped when Van decided to accept an offer to go to Philadelphia and with his uncle start a record label. "Mr. D. J.," one of their first releases on the label, became a super hit.

"Mr. D. J." soon became McCoy's vehicle to success as Sceptor Records bought the master and released it nationally. This was just what the doctor ordered for Van because it brought him into the limelight, at Sceptor with people who recognized his talents.

His tenure with the label as a writer and producer proved to be quite fruitful and among his earliest credits were projects with the Shirelles.

The mid-60s also proved to be good years for Van as he became involved with such stars as Gladys Knight ("Giving Up"), Barbara Lewis ("Baby I'm Yours"), Ruby and The Romantics ("When You're Young and in Love"), Chad and Jeremy ("Before and After") and "I Don't Wanna Lose You Baby", plus a long list of winners for Peaches and Herb.

Once Was Singer

With this type of impressive talent to work with it's no wonder that Van almost forgot that he once was a singer.

"At that time, I really didn't want to be a singer," he says. "I fought it every inch of the way! The only thing I was interested in was writing and producing for other artists."

Although he claims to have fought the urge to sing, he did cut one album with Mitch Miller for Columbia called "Night time is Lonely Time." He also made the television show circuit which included 12 appearances on the "Tonight" Show.

Granite City PRESS-RECORD

In 1967, Van teamed up with Joe Cobb to form an independent publishing and production company. Again, another list of accomplishments began to gather as Brenda & The Tabulations, Aretha Franklin, Vicki Carr, Roberta Flack, Van Jones, Nancy Wilson and John Simon, just to mention a few, recorded McCoy's songs.

With all this experience behind him, it seems about time that Van receives the credit due him as a singer. On "Soul Improvisations" he not only sings, but he plays the piano, arranged and conducted the entire album with the help of Cobb. The truly pleasing thing about the album is that it is as easy on the ear as it is easy on the eye, and continues in the vein, offering premium examples of McCoy's songwriting and improvisational abilities.

A top class back-up group has enabled Van to space out the album with pauses for the lyrics to feature instrumental selections. The even balance between the two make "Soul Improvisations" a platter to watch.

ALL ABOUT ALBUMS

A good fast country western beat and rhythm can be found in the new RCA album "Dolly Parton, Touch Your Woman." Dolly was only 16 years old when she first sang on the radio and this experience shows. It seems she puts her whole soul into her songs, especially the title tune.

Also on RCA comes "Mura Golden Gems From The Original Carter Family." Their type of music is more for the classic country western music lovers. It is in its own way a collectors' item. The album has religious qualities about it and includes a vast amount of chording. The Carter Family was one of the early country western recording groups.

Earth Day Observance Set Monday at SIU-SW

Problems of conservation and pollution abatement are among the topics to be discussed on Earth Day Monday at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern.

Activities will begin at 9 a.m. with a funeral march calling attention to environmental problems on the campus mall. Students dressed in black will carry a casket mounted with the earth flag.

Booths on environmental alternatives will open at 9:30 a.m. in the Goshen Lounge of the University Center. Information on organic gardening, recycling, food co-ops and planned parent-hood will be available at the booths throughout the day.

At 10 a.m. Josef Seidel from McDonnell Douglas Corp. will talk on "Space Benefits for Mankind" in the Mississippi Illinois Room of the Center. He will show ways space technology can be used in fighting environmental problems.

A panel discussion on industrial pollution abatement will begin at 11 a.m. in the Goshen Lounge of the University Center. The panel will include Wendell Miller, Illinois Power Co.; C. F. Buckley, Monsanto; George Arnold, Madison County Citizens Environmental Council; and James Keelner, Environmental Protection Agency.

A panel discussion on solid waste will begin at 1 p.m., monitored by Ronald Yarbrough of the department of earth sciences at SIU-SW, and Richard Parker of the department of biological sciences.

Throughout the afternoon 12 automobile factory representatives will be available on the campus mall to show various devices on automobiles designed to control air pollution. Movies on problems of conservation will also be shown throughout the afternoon in the Mississippi-Illinois Room of the University Center.

Square dancing beginning at 2:30 p.m. on the campus mall will give people an opportunity for recreation and music.

Earth Day is sponsored by an SIU-SW student group known as EnACTs (Environmental Action). Prof. Richard Parker is the faculty advisor. Paul Risk and Sandy King are coordinators of Earth Day.

The Memorial Day weekend open water dive at Ball Shoals will be discussed.

RUSSIAN SPEAKERS AT SIU-SW. Three Russian university students and three Southern Illinois University-Southwestern students will discuss how the U. S. and USSR might contribute to the cause of peace at 8:15 p.m. Monday in the Communications Building Theater. The Russians are, left to right, Nikolai N. Mukhin, secretary of the student organization of Moscow State University; Levon G. Saakyan, first secretary of the youth leaders of the Republic of Armenia; and Vladimir A. Kavtaradze, member of the Presidium of the Committee of Youth Organizations of the USSR.

Russian Students To Discuss Peace At Campus Here

Three university students from the Soviet Union will be at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern Monday to discuss the question, "How Might the U. S. and USSR Contribute to the Cause of Peace?" with three SIU-SW students. The public is invited, admission free, to hear the discussion at 8:15 p.m. in the Communications Building theater.

Students from the USSR are Vladimir A. Kavtaradze, a member of the Presidium of the Committee of Youth Organizations of the USSR; Nikolai N. Mukhin, secretary of the student organization of Moscow State University; and Levon G. Saakyan, first secretary of the youth leaders of the Republic of Armenia. SIU-SW participants will be announced later.

This is the first organized speaking tour made by Soviet citizens, a U. S. State Department spokesman said. Soviets have spoken in America before but not in the format to be used as part of such an organized itinerary.

Format of the program at SIU-SW includes an opportunity for members of the audience to ask questions and for any speaker to answer any question. A 10-minute summary speech will be presented by one speaker from each country.

The Soviet trio will be at only six universities in the United States. The SIU-SW program was arranged by the Speech Communication Association.

Robert H. Hall of New York City, associate executive secretary of SCA, will speak about the organization and its international exchange program.

Coordinating the Russians' appearance at SIU-SW is Dan Galden, director of forensics at the local campus.

Skin, Scuba Diving Course to Start at 'Y'

The YMCA is introducing another skin and scuba divers course to start at 7 p.m. Friday.

Classroom action will be held from 7 to 8:30 p.m., followed by pool time until 10:30 p.m. The course is 30 hours in length, scheduled to be completed in time for all students to participate in an open water dive on Memorial Day.

The class is open to 20 students, male or female, 16 years or older, in good health and with proven swimming ability. Younger swimmers may register with their parents.

The first eight hours are devoted to skin diving skills, the rest to scuba. The classroom schedule will be devoted to theory, lecture and discussion followed by practical application in the pool.

Included in the cost of the course is the best text available and use of equipment. Students are to furnish their own mask, fins, snorkel, bathing suit, towel, pencil and note books.

The class will be led by Rex Waggoner, a certified leader of the Midwest Diving Council and the Professional Association of Diving Instructors (PADI).

Cost for "Y" members $45 and for non-members $55. Further information may be obtained from Jack Atkinson, 877-5688, instructor Rex Waggoner, 831-5489, or Kent D. Dunn, "Y" physical director, at 876-7200.

Life Saving Course To Start at YMCA

Creating a need for trained water safety personnel and for personal development for safety of family, friend and self, the YMCA has announced its last senior life saving course for the spring.

The class will meet from 7 to 10:30 p.m. Tuesdays and 4 to 7 p.m. Saturdays April 24 to May 27. Rex Waggoner, certified Red Cross water safety instructor, will teach the class. Time in the course includes class room lectures, discussion, films and time in the swimming pool to practice needed skills.

Students must be 15 or over or who have completed the ninth grade and who can meet the physical and preliminary swimming test qualifications. A maximum of 20 students may enroll. The course is also (SP recommended) for certified skin and scuba divers by Waggoner.

Cost of the course includes text and handouts. The class fee for "Y" members is $8 and for non-members $15. Those interested in further information or registration may visit the "Y" or call Ron Ireland, aquatic administrator, or Kent D. Dunn, physical director, at the "Y."

GUAM
On Feb. 1, 1980, Guam became an unincorporated territory of the United States after capture by U.S. naval forces in the Spanish-American War.

Mom's Day Is Set May 5-7 at U. of I. Campus

May 5, 6 and 7 are the dates for the annual "Moms Day" weekend on the Urbana-Champaign campus of the University of Illinois.

The students are presenting an exciting selection of activities and programs for "Mom", ranging from the student produced musical "Fiddler on the Roof" at the Assembly Hall to the Black Mothers program featuring Shirley Caesar and the Caesar Singers with the Black Student Chorus.

Among the repeat programs are the Style Show in the Illini Union and the Horticulture Club's Flower Show in the Live-Stock Pavilion.

The Mothers Association's county chairwoman and interested mothers will hear President and Mrs. Corbally speak on Friday evening at the annual banquet. Reservations are required for the banquet and must be submitted by April 28.

On Saturday, following a coffee hour, open to all mothers, the Mothers Association will present the Medallion of Honor Award to Dr. Miriam A. Sheldon, dean of student personnel, formerly dean of women. Dean Sheldon always has been in the vanguard of concern for students, for equal opportunity for the disadvantaged and for blacks and women. She holds the rank of commander in the Woman's Reserve of the Naval Air Command.

Further information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Joseph E. Aubrecht, County Chairman, at 656-2691, or Mrs. Milton H. Stehman, Assistant County Chairman, at 344-3703. Both of these chairmen have students at the University. Kathryn Aubrecht is a junior and James Stehman is a sophomore at the University.

Burglary at Grigsby

Two speakers valued at $50 each, $5 in cash and several miscellaneous items were stolen in a burglary of Grigsby Junior High School during the night, it was reported Monday. Three rooms were entered, desks were ransacked and chalk boards were damaged. Entry was gained by prying a window.

The hospital team is composed of staff members of the hospital who donate their time for such benefits, Frisse said. "The gym has a capacity of 2,900 seats and we hope to fill all of them," the unit manager commented. "This will be both an entertaining and enjoyable evening for area residents," he added.

There may be other members of the group who also will participate in the benefit. For those who like to keep souvenirs, a program book will be offered for sale at the game. The booklet will display pictures of both team members and a picture of the Ray Gean family.

Ray Gean, the Granite City man who is awaiting a kidney transplant operation at Mayo Clinic, is listed in satisfactory condition. He underwent major surgery for the removal of both kidneys on April 7.

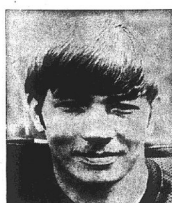

No definite date has been set for the transplant operation. According to a family spokesman, the operation should take place within three weeks.

Plan Area Workshop On Racial Relations

On the first four Mondays in May, the Quad-Cities Ministerial Association will sponsor a workshop on "Racism: Awareness and Response," led by the Committee for Action thru Education. The workshop will take place from 7:30 to 9:30 each of the four evenings at Central Christian Church, 2020 Johnson Road, Granite City.

The workshop is designed to help the participants gain a better understanding of the black person's experience and some of the built-in prejudices of society, a spokesman said. The object of the workshop is to create through group interaction and discussion a new level of awareness and to explore a means of positive responsible action concerning the problems of racism in our community, he said.

The workshop will be led by Jonathan Harris, Miss Maureen Berke, and Miss Helen Delaney, who make up the Committee for Action thru Education. Each has had extensive experience in education, church work, and race relations. They have conducted workshops in six states and in several churches, schools, and YMCA's in the St. Louis area.

Residents of the area, including housewives, businessmen, students, church leaders, school teachers, and factory workers, are encouraged to attend.

Interested persons may register at Central Christian Church. There is a cost of $8 for each person wishing to participate. The pastors of the Quad-Cities Ministerial Association have registration blanks available. Rev. Don Bogue (876-3655), Dr. Jim Anthis (876-4032), and Father Dan Flynn (452-8109) will answer any questions. The deadline for registration is Monday, April 24.

MISS DEBRA WILLIAMS, whose engagement to Allen Bridgeman is being announced by her mother, Mrs. Delores Williams, 1713 Garfield Ave.

Macios Sisters Are Confirmed

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Macios, 78 McCambridge Drive, were hosts at a buffet supper this week honoring two of their daughters, Carla and Jo Elaine Macios.

The girls were confirmed in ceremonies taking place at St. Elizabeth Roman Catholic Church. Sponsors for the confirmations were Mr. and Mrs. Ann Kuhlmann and Mrs. Brenda Cant.

Guests attending were their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Macios and Mr. and Mrs. William Kuhlmann; and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Macios and children, Linda, Donna, Karen and Paul, Mr. and Mrs. James Cant and children, Scott and Amy, Mrs. Ursula Cook and family, Sharon, Paula, Ed and Tom Cook and Gerald and Glenn Lackey, Miss Denise Selinger and Mr. and Mrs. Dave Brooks and children, Kenny, Kevin and Debbie, and the honorees' brother, Marc and sisters, Cathleen, Jo Ann and Julie Macios.

Miss Carolyn Brimm Is Wed to Keith Tanksley

Bouquets of white spring blossoms and burning candles in aisle candelabra formed the setting at Bethel Chapel Pentecostal Church on April 7 for the evening wedding of Miss Carolyn S. Brimm and Keith M. Tanksley.

The former Miss Brimm is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Brimm, 2212 Ohio Ave. The bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Tanksley, reside at 2729 Birch Ave.

The bride chose a pure white organza gown fashioned with a slightly raised waistline, high neck and an Alencon lace bodice trimmed with Venice lace. The lace extended into the long, semi-bouffant skirt and formed deep cuffs on the full, wrist length sleeves.

A profile headpiece of lace and pearls held in place the bridal veil of silk illusion, and she carried a cascade of orange rosebuds and white carnations interspersed with lily of the valley and satin streamers.

Miss Debra Brimm was maid of honor and Miss Debra Brimm, a sister of the bride, was bridesmaid.

Debra Williams Is Betrothed

News of the engagement of Miss Debra Williams and Allen Bridgeman, U. S. Navy, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bridgeman, 2415 East 24th St., was disclosed at a family dinner party given by the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Delores Williams, in her home, 1713 Garfield Ave.

The hostess served dinner to approximately 40 guests.

Miss Williams will graduate from Granite City High School in June.

The prospective groom is a 1970 graduate of Granite City High School and has served the past year in the Navy at Norfolk, Va. He departed last week on a tour of duty in Vietnam.

Wedding plans are indefinite at the present time.

JAMES BROSHOWS NAME SON BRENT LOUIS

Mr. and Mrs. James Broshows, 1521 Joy Ave., are announcing the birth of a son on April 14 at Belleville Memorial Hospital.

The new arrival weighed seven pounds, seven ounces and has been named Brent Louis.

Regina Brimm, a niece of the bride, was flower girl. She carried a white basket of pale yellow carnations and orange rosebuds. John Brimm, the bride's nephew, was ring bearer.

Larry Tanksley and Terry Tanksley, both brothers of the groom, served as best man and groomsmen, respectively. Ushers were Bill and Bob Brimm, brothers of the bride.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Tri-Cities Area YMCA. The couple is residing at 2609 Edwards St., after a honeymoon trip to the Lake of the Ozarks region of Missouri.

The bride is a graduate of Granite City High School and attended Centerville Township Hospital School of X-Ray Technology. She is employed as a x-ray technician at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Her husband, also a graduate of the local high school, attended Belleville Area Junior College. He is employed at McDonnell-Douglas Corp., in St. Louis County.

PARENTS FOR SPECIAL EDUCATION HEAR SPEAKER

Mrs. Kay Hanne, vice-president of the Parents For Special Education, presided at the organization's April meeting held at the Regional Special Education Office on Madison Avenue. Announcement was made that the Lincoln Place Mothers Club had donated $10.00 to the organization toward party expenses.

Guest speaker was Mrs. Demamma Spodich, High School Special Education teacher, who spoke on education of the special children at the secondary level.

Also addressing the group was David Warren, Neighborhood Commissioner for the Boy Scouts. He reported that additional volunteers are needed for the Cub Pack that has been formed, and is sponsored by the Parents For Special Education.

Paul Courtin who serves as institutional representative also was present.

Cub Pack 11 meets each Wednesday evening from 7:30 until 8:30 p.m., at Marshall School.

It was announced that a representative from the Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction for the State of Illinois will speak on "Legislation," at the Friday, April 21, 4 p.m., meeting of the Council For Exceptional Children at the Peck Building on the SIU-SW campus.

The prize went to Mrs. Kay Hanne. The next meeting will be Thursday May 11, at 7 p.m.

Larry Dew reported that summer school will be held and that additional information will be sent to the parents at a later date.

THORNGATE GARDEN CLUB

The Thorngate Garden Club met at the home of Mrs. Carolyn Moser, 2826 Yale Ave., for a monthly business meeting, and for a "hat contest."

Members arrived wearing their own original "creations." Prizes for the best hats went to Mrs. Wanda Kincaid, first; and Mrs. Lillian Delps, second.

The hostess served a dessert course and used an Easter theme for the table decorations. Green Easter grass was spread the full length of the table, and was filled with candies. Favors were Easter baskets.

Mrs. Clara Schiller offered the reading, "Friends," and those present answered roll call by telling of their favorite piece of glassware.

Plans were completed for a party the group will give April 26, at the Professional Care Home in Troy. Mrs. Lillian Delps is in charge of arrangements for the event. The club will present the residents of the home with awards for games, and will serve refreshments.

Tentative plans for the club's "guest day," in the fall were made, and an invitation was read from the Madison County Home Extension Office, inviting the women to a "Tastin' You Like It" party.

The Thorngate members will attend the May 4 "gala day" of another local Club 54, at the Nameoki Recreation Center.

Mrs. Caroline Moser gave the "sunshine" report. It was announced that the May meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Francis Polley, 4132 North Drive.

Others attending, in addition to those already mentioned, were Mesdames Mary Makham, Betty King, Beulah Miller, Pearl Young, and the president, Mrs. Patricia Polley.

The Past Chiefs Club of Cascade Temple 216 met Monday in the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Bost in the Anchorage Homes. The hostess served a noon luncheon.

Mrs. Lillian Chepley, president, opened the meeting with prayer and conducted the business session.

Attending the meeting and social hour were Mesdames Olivia Lehman, Linda Schling, Martha Montague of Troy, Leola Arbogast, Neil Hutchison and Fern Eggle.

Mrs. Chepley invited members to meet in her home, 2900 Iowa St., on May 15.

KARDETTES CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. PERKINS

Mrs. Rose Perkins of Rural Route One, Troy, Ill., entertained the KardeTTes Club Monday night in her home.

Those excelling at games and winning prizes were Mesdames Winona Kibart, Betty Papp, Frances Skush and Faye Bugger, a guest.

Others attending were Mesdames Josephine Orescovich, Emma Jakich, Barbara Nemeth and Beverly Steff. Mrs. Nemeth will serve as hostess at the next meeting.

Plans for a spring dance on Saturday, April 29, were finalized by members of the "R" Club of the Nativity of the Virgin Mary Eastern Orthodox Church, at a meeting Monday evening.

George Bakan, club president, reported arrangements for the public dance, to be staged at the Polish Hall in Madison. Dancing will start at 9 p.m., with music provided by the Tune Twisters, Bakan said. Tickets are available in advance from club members.

This week's business session was held at the church hall, Fifth Street and Ewing Avenue, Madison.

CONFIRMATION PARTY HONORS RICHARD ROGERS

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Morrison, 3924 Gaslight Walk, entertained this week in honor of their son, Richard Rogers, who was confirmed during services at St. Elizabeth Catholic Church.

Richard, who is in the sixth grade at St. Elizabeth's School, chose the Confirmation name of St. Frances. His sponsor was Frank Diekmann of St. Louis.

Bishop William A. O'Connor of Springfield, officiated, and Father Lawrence Mattingly, pastor of St. Elizabeth's, assisted.

A buffet dinner was served to Sister Genevieve Lane of Cleveland, Ohio, who is a teacher at St. Louis University, and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Naud of Detroit, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Joe De Simone, of Pittsburgh, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Napoli, Mr. and Mrs. George Datz; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gallagher, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wolf, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Diekmann, and D. Catalano, all of St. Louis, and Mrs. Daisy Cornett.

The confirmation cake was trimmed in yellow and white.

Conduct Charge Filed

David L. David, 24, of 1244 Onole St., Venice, was arrested at home at 10:35 p.m. Monday and charged with disorderly conduct after a neighbor alleged he saw David loitering in his home through a window, police reported.

Multiplier of 1.0 Leaves County Values Unchanged

An assessment multiplier figure of 1.0 has been received by the county clerk's office at Edwardsville from the Illinois Department of Local Government Affairs — which leaves county assessment figures unchanged from those certified by the Madison County Board of Review.

County Clerk Eulalia Hotz said receipt of the multiplier clears the way for computation of tax rates and extension of taxes which are to be billed for collection this summer.

The state applies an across-the-board multiplier to all assessments in the county. A multiplier higher than 1.0 would result in an increase in all assessments.

Rates Too Low
State officials warned Madison County assessment officials in February that a multiplier of approximately 1.1 was needed this year because assessments in Granite City and Wood River Townships were not meeting the required assessment ratio of 50% of fair cash value.

As a result the review board extended a flat 7% increase on real estate assessments in the two townships, a move that brought the ratio within the state requirement.

On the basis of the review board certification, Madison County's assessed valuation will total $977.5 million, an increase of $85.5 million over those last year. When railroad and capital stock values are added, the county assessment will hit $960.5 million, or only $3.5 million under the $1 billion mark.

Prize Awarded

Mrs. Milveta Vidon, 2644 E. 27th St., was the winner of a Corning pyro-ceramic portable Countersaver presented by Granite City Appliance, 3750 Ponton Road. The award was made at a cooking demonstration of the Corning Countersaver electric range at the appliance store.

Truck Rolls Into Auto

A city truck operated by John S. Gomez, 2666 Madison Ave., rolled back and caused slight damage to the front of the auto of Joan E. Kaseberg, Rural Route One, as both were stopped in traffic at 9:45 a.m. Tuesday at Franklin Avenue and Ponton Road.

No River Flood Threat Likely, Guillou Says

Copley News Service
Springfield — Spring floods, which have done disastrous damage along Illinois streams during past years, are not expected to be a significant threat this year.

Record crests hit Illinois in April and May of 1965, and in late June of 1967. This year, however, exceptionally heavy snows were scarce in runoff areas to the north of Illinois, and deep layers of hard frost resulting from unusually low winter temperatures have produced an easy thaw.

Because of the outlook forecast by the U. S. Corps of Engineers, and the National Weather Bureau, the Illinois Civil Defense Agency this spring has not put "Operation Foresight" into effect.

The operation is one normally activated just before floodtimes, to urge persons living in areas which may be involved in flooding to take necessary precautions for protection of lives and property.

A flood bulletin issued by John Guillou, chief engineer of the state division of waters, noted that final determination of crests will depend on the amount of precipitation during the snow melting period.

Based only on the most recent measurements of remaining snow depth and its water equivalent, and current estimates of soil conditions, without any additional precipitation, many Mississippi River checkpoints will not reach flood stage.

With normal amounts of precipitation from March 14 to the normal dates for final snow disappearance, combined with current snow and soil conditions, indications now are that crests will only slightly exceed flood stages in some places and still fall below them in other points along the Mississippi, Guillou said.

Below the Alton dam, the Mississippi should run at bank levels unless widespread heavy rains should happen to coincide with the passage of the snowmelt crests, the flood bulletin shows.

Unexpectedly rapid thaws and runoff could also cause higher crests than now appears likely, Guillou's report shows. In specific areas, crests may be three to five feet higher than normal if ice jams occur.

Currently the flood picture for Illinois in the spring of 1972 is hopeful enough that no further flood bulletins are planned, unless unlikely weather conditions occur.

Implied Consent Law Cannot Be Enforced, Chiefs Assert

By GARY COMPTON
Copley News Service

Springfield — The Illinois Police Chiefs Association has rejected the new implied consent law, which becomes effective July 1, claiming that the law is unenforceable as written because of certain requirements in the document.

At the association's mid-winter seminar, the police chiefs passed a resolution attacking the implied consent bill because it requires police departments to use a new breathalyzing machine which automatically displays the test results on a print-out.

"No one in this organization has ever seen this machine yet," Jacob Novak, executive secretary of the association, said. "It requires training every police officer in the state who will be using the machine," he said.

The association plans to send copies of the resolution to Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie and members of the General Assembly before the April reconvening date.

Another provision of the bill to which the association objects is a requirement to transport a person under arrest to a qualified person of his choice for a breath analysis.

"We have to take him (a person under arrest) to a place of his choice or 'bribe' him," Novak said. "If the arrested person is detained in the custody of the police and such test has been administered, the police shall, at the request of the arrested person, facilitate the prompt securing of an additional chemical test by a qualified person of the arrested person's choice and at his own expense."

According to Novak, "The only machine made is a prototype. There is no being sold commercially. No one in the state has machines or operators for them. It is estimated that it will cost us, the local police departments, at least $1 million."

"The association is for implied consent 100%, but we're not for this," Novak said. "This is a deception if there ever was one," he added, referring to the law it stands.

Rep. Webster Borchers, R-Decatur, sponsor of the bill, said it is his understanding that the new machines are available.

He admitted that the cost of the program would not be inexpensive. His estimate of the cost of implementing the program is $1.5 million. "This bill will save at least 100 lives a year, and how much is a life worth?" Borchers asked.

Borchers was surprised by the objection to the requirement concerning transporting persons under arrest.

He said he was unaware this would be an issue. Borchers said the transportation provision is designed to be used to hamper police work. He pointed out that it also provides for 150 minutes between the time of arrest and the time a test can be administered to be used as evidence.

The portion of the bill which Borchers referred to states that "no evidence based upon a test or chemical analysis of breath shall be admissible in evidence in a proceeding under Section 11-501 unless corroborated by an automatically printed recording of the reading of the testing device and unless administered within 150 minutes following arrest of the person tested."

Borchers said he feels that this time provision will eliminate many of the problems this section may create.

He said he will study the law and will submit an amendment to it if he feels the language is not clear concerning this.

DISPUTES ON CHILD-REARING

A wide difference of opinion exists on how to bring up children, and the reasons for the differences.

The childhood training of husband and wife certainly affect their opinions and theories on child-rearing. For example, it's possible for both parents to have been accustomed to strict discipline and to have reacted differently. The partner who had a happy experience believes this is the way to rear children. The other partner, who resented the rules and regulations, vows to use another method. Not only is the early experience important, but also how you feel about it.

Given such variations in experience, how should parents approach a harmonious decision?

The main point is to keep bitterness and personalities out of their opinions and theories on child-rearing. State your individual position with fairness and good will. This procedure may make you analyze your reasons for your position. Then listen willingly while your spouse states his opinion. By discussing controversial matters in the open, you will lessen physical and emotional stress.

Many parents are reluctant to admit that they disagree. You might as well face the fact that you and your spouse know you're always agree. And usually they can tell who stands for what.

Don't worry about occasional strong differences of opinion. Children can sense the overall climate of the home and are not so easily hurt by an occasional family "storm."

ADJUSTING JOB TO FAMILY
Almost everybody who is employed finds his job frustrating at some time. But working mothers seem to be the most frustrated. Here are some suggestions for mothers who are now working or who plan to accept a job outside the home.

Since it is unlikely that you have the time to do everything you would like, concentrate first on the time you will have for the family, then on the job, and finally, on other interests. It's important to set priorities, organizing your time and energy limitations. And surprisingly, working mothers frequently manage to have fewer conflicts regarding their time than do mothers who are not employed outside the home.

Unless you are uniquely gifted, you may find it necessary to subordinate your job ambitions to the needs of your family.

When placing a value on your job, include these intangibles: the stimulus of being with other adults, the knowledge you acquire, the security of two incomes, the lessened financial pressure on your husband, and the personal satisfaction of having your capabilities recognized.

AT MEALTIME
Make a family mealtime a looked-forward-to habit. Its important for family members to enjoy being together or sometime every day if a strong and close relationship is to develop. And many families find that evening mealtime is an excellent period for togetherness.

Here are some suggestions for developing the habit: Establish a regular time for the evening meal and expect the entire family to be present. Adults and children should be expected to schedule their activities "after dinner."

Slavic Group Sets Conference at Campus

The seventh annual Slavic and East European Conference will be held Friday and Saturday at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern. The public is invited.

The conference will open Friday with a coffee-symposium in the Missouri Room of the University Center from 10:30 a.m. to noon. George J. Prip, professor of history at John Carroll University, will discuss Slavic contributions to American economic development.

Saturday from 4 to 6 p.m. there will be a coffee-symposium in the International Room on Sources for Study of Slavic Americans, conducted by Stanley B. Kimball, history professor at SIU-SW. Assisting Kimball will be Prof. Prip and the Rev. Louis A. Barth, S.J., professor of philosophy at St. Louis University.

The banquet at 6:45 p.m. in the River Rooms will feature Slavic dishes. Price of dinner is $5 for adults and $2 for children under 12. Reservations should be made with Charles Schweizer, SIU-SW Foundation, 692-2211.

Following the banquet, the annual meeting of the Illinois and East European Friends of SIU-SW will be conducted by its president, John Spiller of St. Louis. Prof. Prip will speak on "The South Slav Immigrants in America."

Organized four years ago to maintain an association of interested persons to preserve and foster Slavic and East Eu-

A WATCHED POT never boils, but Granite City Rotarians managed to keep the pot hot. More than 1,000 area residents enjoyed the 5th Annual Chili Day Tuesday. The event was held in the Niedringhaus United Methodist Church. Rotarians Walter Milton, right, and Marvin VanMetre are keeping the chili well mixed.

Small Counties Combining on Law Enforcement

By RAY SERATI
Copy News Service
Springfield, Smaller Illinois counties and municipalities are looking into the possibility of combining their resources on law enforcement.

Already some downstate counties have pooled their resources with various communities within a county and placed into effect various plans on police or law enforcement protection plans.

Studies are now underway to determine the possibility of combining several counties in an effort to provide more services in the field of law enforcement as well as presenting modern techniques of law enforcement.

The studies are being conducted by the Law Enforcement Commission. The commission has been dispensing federal monies received by Illinois to combat crime in the state. The money is used for various police training programs to purchase equipment. The commission is named by the governor.

Detective Program
Recent reports show that Effingham County, in south-central Illinois this year started with the city of Effingham a cooperative detective program. State officials say the program, which started in January, appears to be working very well. Another county-wide protection program was started in Edwards County.

Other counties in the state are looking into the possibility of joining with neighboring counties to form police or law enforcement plans. Just how soon these studies are complete, state officials indicate they do not know at this time.

The state officials are hopeful that the studies can be completed at the earliest possible date so that federal funds can be obtained to help them into operation.

State officials with the commission feel that the reason counties and municipalities are showing interest to combine on their law enforcement efforts is the fact that more federal funds have become available for use in this area.

The local governments can share costs of personnel, equipment and even office space.

Bid Received by State For Parks Airport Work

Apparent low bids for airport projects in Cahokia, Springfield and Danville were received Friday. Alan P. Landolt, director of the Illinois Department of Aeronautics, announced.

At the Bi-State Parks Airport, Cahokia, work involves construction of T-H hangar access aprons. The apparent low bid of $258,228 was submitted by Reese Construction Co., Cahokia.

State Funds Student Internships for 1972

Director Robert J. Lehnhausen of the Illinois Department of Local Government Affairs has announced that the department is accepting applications from local governments for summer and fall schedules of the Student Intern in Local Government Program.

"This program," Lehnhausen said, "allows municipal, county and village governments to recruit young responsible adults who are students in Illinois colleges or universities and are interested in pursuing careers in Illinois local government."

"Student internships strengthen the recruitment efforts of local governments and provide additional personnel at minimal cost to the communities," he added. An internship has been funded for Granite City for 1972.

Applications are considered for funding based on the project proposal, the extent of supervision to be provided by the intern, and the local government's willingness to participate on an orientation and evaluation program for students and supervisors.

Grants of $300 and $1,000 are made to the local government unit for the student internships. The amount of the grant depends on the unit's previous participation in this program, Lehnhausen explained.

Applications are reviewed on a quarterly basis with funding to follow June 1, Sept. 1, Dec. 1 and March 1. The program is administered by the department's office of community services.

Faces License Change

Ruth Evelyn Flowers, 1330 Grand Ave., Madison, was arrested and charged with driving without a valid driver's license and without a valid registration following a weekend traffic accident at Chestnut Street and Niedringhaus Avenue. Madison Bank Installs Ultra Modern Security System as Crime Deterrent

Now, like pro football on television, even banks have instant replay, slow motion playback and stop action viewing. At least that's how the case at the First National Bank in Madison where video cameras and video tape recorders have been installed to form the area's most modern banking security surveillance system.

With the aid of wide angle lens and pan camera every business area of the bank is "covered" through the use of five strategically placed video cameras. The closed circuit television system was installed last week as a deterrent to crime, tape recorded and may be played back instantaneously. Every transaction is now video viewed weeks or even months later.

That the system would serve its purpose in providing increased security has already been proved.

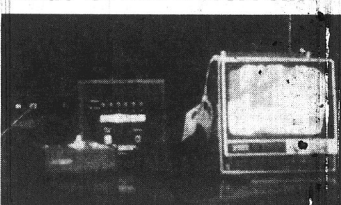

The second day the system was in operation two subjects were apprehended by the Madison Police Department after a split deposit fraud.

Bank officials became aware of the fact that a crime had been committed approximately one hour after the fraudulent transaction. Within minutes, Madison detectives were viewing the entire episode on television. The subjects were identified and apprehended less than two hours after perpetration of the crime and are now in jail awaiting trial.

Use Five Cameras

The five cameras in operation at the bank are equipped with an electronic automatic sensitivity control that adjusts the camera to suit a wide range of lighting conditions. The video tape recorder and playback unit provides extensive flexibility for the system. Seven hours of banking can be recorded on one seven inch reel of tape. The unit may be set so that pictures may be alternately produced by any of the five cameras. Each area may be viewed for seconds or indefinitely.

Slow motion playback produces action at one-tenth actual speed. When manually operated; stop action scenes, one after another are captured at one-thirtieth second intervals. The stop action pictures can readily be reproduced with a polaroid camera to provide law-enforcement officials with almost instant identifiable pictures of suspects.

The video system provides two distinct advantages over the traditional alarm camera bank security systems. The first, obviously, is the speed at which police may review a criminal act. Video tape provides instant viewing, eliminating the need for film processing.

All Transactions Filmed

The second advantage is that all transactions are filmed while the traditional camera alarm system needed to be activated manually. In some frequent use, almost only use, was in the case of bank robberies. With video tape since every transaction will be filmed, insufficient fund checks, forgeries, stolen checks, quick change artists, confidence men will all be doing their acts for the benefit of the camera.

Dr. John E. Lee, president of The First National Bank in Madison noted, "There is evidence that criminals avoid attempting criminal acts where they know they are being photographed. There are now only a few of these security systems in operation in banks across the country."

"This is another step forward by the bank's board of directors to provide the most modern banking anywhere," for our customers.

So next time you do your banking at The First National Bank in Madison remember: "Smile, you're on camera."

Farmers Warned About Employing Children

A reminder to Illinois farmers regarding employment of minors under 16 on farms during school hours was issued today by Gerald J. Mitchell, U.S. Department of Labor official in Chicago.

Mitchell, regional administrator of the Labor Department's Employment Standards Administration, emphasized that the Fair Labor Standards Act prohibits the employment of children under 16 during school hours while school is in session.

"The law also bars the employment of minors under 16 in hazardous farm occupations at any time, according to Mitchell. "These prohibitions apply equally to migrant children and local children," Mr. Mitchell pointed out. "The child labor laws are intended to insure that every youngster has a chance for education, as well as good health and normal growth."

Car Fire Extinguished

Madison volunteer firemen extinguished a blaze in a car at Washington Avenue and Collinsville Road this week. The owner was not identified. The fire is believed to have started from faulty wiring in the engine. Firemen were on the scene 10 minutes.

Rosch Appointed Dean Of Lake Forest College

Robert S. Rosch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Rosch, 62 Oak Lawn Drive, has been appointed to the new position of dean of the college at Lake Forest College, Illinois.

ROBERT S. ROSCH

He was co-author of "The Vietnam War," a 60-page booklet of documents and background materials published in 1966 by Stanford Law School, and co-authored the sections on law and politics of "Demeter: An Earth Resource Observation System," published by Stanford School of Engineering in 1968. A member of the Oregon State Bar, the American Bar Association and the American Association of University Professors, he won several law school awards, including the American Jurisprudence Award for excellent achievement in the study of international law.

His wife, the former Anne Hopewell Selby, will join the faculty of the University of Illinois, Chicago Circle campus, as an assistant professor of English effective Sept. 1. Mrs. Rosch received her A.B. (1966), M.A. (1969) and Ph.D. (1971) degrees from Stanford University, where she was a teaching fellow and acting instructor. In 1966, she was awarded a Woodrow Wilson Fellowship as one of the most promising future college teachers in the country.

Dean Rosch will be involved with students in the classroom as well as in the office, since he will teach one or two courses in the Department of Politics during the year. He said that he will focus his job on the "improvement of campus life" and "working with the campus community to achieve this goal."

A 1968 graduate of Stanford University Law School, he received his B.A. in history at Stanford in 1965. For the past three years, he has been in the political science faculty at Reed College, where he has been dean of admissions and executive assistant to the president.

He was co-author of "The Vietnam War," a 60-page booklet of documents and background materials published in 1966 by Stanford Law School, and co-authored the sections on law and politics of "Demeter: An Earth Resource Observation System," published by Stanford School of Engineering in 1968.

Cadet Windisch Cited For Scholastic Work

Cadet Robert Windisch of Sukiran, Okla., has been cited for his superior scholastic work during the seventh grading period at Missouri Military Academy, Mexico.

Li Col. Eugene Lamm, principal of the 9th-through-12th grade high school, said that Windisch, son of Mrs. Mary A. Windisch, Sukiran, scored nine honor points.

Missouri Military Academy is a school for boys in 4th through 12th grades. Cadets are sectioned by ability into honors and average groupings. Honor points are awarded on the basis of the student's letter grade and section level.

Cadet Windisch is the grandson of Mrs. Helen DeRuntz, 2145 Grand Ave.

Makes Straight A's

Ron Jeffrey Matson, 55 Janday Lane, has been named to the president's list at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, for posting a straight A average for the winter quarter.

Susan Hull Advances In Area Spelling Bee

Susan Hull, 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hull, 2717 Buxton Ave., is one of 16 students to survive the first quarter-final round of St. Louis regional competition for the national Spelling Bee last Saturday.

A student at Coolidge Junior High School, she advanced to the semi-finals on April 23. Finals will be televised on May 7. Quarter-final sessions will continue on Saturday.

The regional winner will be awarded a portable television set and a 24-volume set of Encyclopedia Britannica and will be given an expense-paid trip to Washington, D. C., for the national finals in June.

Judging Saturday's competition was Al Wilson, principal of Emerson School.

Future Secretaries Tour TV Station, Office

More than 30 members of the Granite City High School Future Secretaries Association saw the news as it happened on a tour of KMOX television studios and offices of General Steel Industries in St. Louis last week.

Their tour occurred at the time tornado warnings and severe storm damages were being reported to the station, and they had to stand to one side in the hall as Jim Bolin and others on the KMOX news staff rushed to Studio A for a special news bulletin concerning the storm.

The theme of the meeting, "Come Join Us," afforded the secretarial students an opportunity to get a glimpse behind the hand of the business world. The members and their faculty advisors, Mrs. Judi Sparks and Miss Lucille Aramowitz, were met in the lobby of the building by Max Roby, television personality, and Mrs. Charlie Voss, the FSA committee chairman, who is secretary to W. Ashley Gray Jr., president of General Steel Industries, and C. P. Whitehead, retired president and chairman of the board.

Takes a Job

Having Max Roby as a tour guide was fully appreciated by the FSA members who had learned that no tours were available for their scheduled time until June, and Roby decided to take on the job as a special favor to the organization.

He took the visitors behind the scenes in the news room where they watched news in the making, and from there down the hall to where he explained how the Mike Douglas show, which was taped, looked when it was held up to the light.

These tapes do not look like movie films with pictures of people on them, but all are electronic. There are men in the control booth whose jobs are to keep a close check on the quality of color, sharpness of picture, and other related quality control matters.

Before leaving the television station, the FSA members were allowed to visit Studio A which had just been vacated by Jim Bolin with his news bulletin flash and was being prepared for broadcast of the 5 p.m. news.

Weather Report

They saw where the 6 o'clock news staff sits, and the workings of the weather report were explained to them. Three cameras, each trained on a special subject, can create one composite picture to make the viewer think it is actually that way in the studio.

The weather map and the weather news caster are some distance apart in reality, but on television they appear to be a foot in so apart.

After leaving KMOX, the FSA students took elevators to the 8th floor where the corporate offices of GSI are located, and they were welcomed by George K. Hoblitzelle, vice-president and secretary, and Miss Dolores Bourisaw, secretary to T. S. Desloge, treasurer. Miss Bourisaw, a member of the Tri-Cities chapter, NSA, and the FSA committee, escorted the group on a tour of the offices.

The meeting of the FSA Chapter was held on the bus to conserve time. Dreama Landy, president, and Treasurer Connie Kufsky gave her report. The chapter donated $5 to the Cancer Crusade.

Officer Nominees

An spirited session followed when officer nominees were suggested. The office of president has three contenders — Pam Clay, Alma Davis and Kathy Williams. Running for vicepresident are Sandy Seibert, Karen Richardson, Robin Smith and Karen Goetting.

Recording Secretary nominees are Shannon Murnighan, Angela Hull and Pam James. Janice Moore, Sheryl White and Brenda Mathis are running for corresponding secretary. The office of treasurer will be sought by Donna Lindner, Joy Barr, Ruth Anderson and Betty Legens.

Balling will take place at the meeting in May, but installation of officers will be delayed until initiation of new members in September. A large affair is planned for this event, with the appoints of the initiates and members again being invited to attend.

Sophomores now taking business subjects who do not make lower than a "C" in the business subjects, and whose overall average is "C" or better, will be eligible for membership and will receive a special invitation to become an FSA member after grades are checked.

Any junior who has been a member of FSA but who has forfeited her membership because of a grade lower than a "C" in a business subject during the first half of this school year will be eligible for membership again if her grades have reached a satisfactory level.

No Exceptions

In talking with the FSA members, it has always been stressed by the faculty advisors and members of the National Secretaries Association that no exceptions can be made to the grade requirements, not will any exceptions be made for those who become members but who do not attend the monthly meetings.

An unexcused absence at three or more meetings is another way of forfeiting membership. Any member who is a co-op student and who works after school was urged to notify the advisors of this fact, and to attend the meeting as early as possible after getting off work, as this would be credited in their attendance record.

As previously announced, the Tri-Cities Chapter of the National Secretaries Association FSA member, with presentation voted to award $50 to a senior FSA member, with presentation being made during the recognition assembly in May. All factors such as participation, meeting attendance, grades and enthusiasm for FSA will be taken into consideration when the award winner is chosen.

Secretaries Week

Seventeen senior girls will be afforded an opportunity to get an even more thorough view of the business world during Secretaries Week when they have been invited to spend the day in the offices of NSA members and also some local offices. Also in connection with Secretaries Week, an invitation is being issued to all FSA members to join with the NSA members on Sunday morning, April 23, for church services at Central Christian Church, 2020 Johnson Road, which will mark the beginning of Secretaries Week activities in the local area.

NSA members will be met by Mrs. Vunovic, and Donna Gray, FSA corresponding secretary, will be on hand to welcome members at 10:40 a.m. at the front entrance to the church. A special section has been set aside in the church for the secretaries and future secretaries.

Any secretarial student who wishes to learn more about membership requirements in the Future Secretaries Association is invited to contact either Mrs. Sparks or Miss Aramowitz.

Lucian Voss to Be Part Of Apollo 16 Recovery

Lucian L. Voss, a 17-year veteran of the U. S. Navy and son of Mrs. Opal Voss, 127 Grenzer Homes, Madison, will be aboard the U.S.S. Ticonderoga that is scheduled to take part in the Apollo 16 splashdown recovery this month.

He has two brothers in the U. S. Army. Kenneth Voss has served 21 years and Melvin Voss has completed 15 years of service. Another brother, Richard Voss, retired in 1970 after 20 years with the U. S. Marine Corps.

Ruth Completes Course At Wittenberg U.

Charles E. Voss of Granite City, air conditioning maintenance superintendent at the Motor Corp. in St. Louis, has completed a first-level course in Wittenberg University's Management Development Program. The week-long programs concentrated in four areas — behavioral studies and motivation, communications and leadership, management functions and methods, and economics and employee relations.

wiz, who will provide complete details.

The next meeting of the FSA chapter is scheduled for Tuesday, May 2, in room 213 at 3:30 p.m., when officers will be elected.

Summer Music Camps Planned at Eastern

High school students will have an opportunity to combine a week of university-level music activities with a preview of campus life during music camps at Eastern Illinois University this summer.

The camps are open to talented high school students, including entering freshmen, in band, chorus, keyboard and string orchestra camps.

The faculty will include outstanding university and public school music teachers. Students will be housed in university dormitories and will have full use of recreational facilities.

Chorus and string camps will be held June 25-July 1. The band camp will be July 9-July 15, and the keyboard camp, which includes piano, harpsichord and organ, will be held June 24-July 1.

Additional information and applications may be obtained from Rhoderick Key, music camp director, Eastern Illinois University, Charleston, Ill. 61920.

IS OUR HOUSE THE BEST VALUE IN TOWN TODAY???

We Think So — and Heres' Why... In our opinion the Basement House in the Granite City area, will increase in value, over the value of a non-basement or slab house with a garage, to the extent that its increased value should, within ten years, be worth the price of a new car for you.

The basement home, has the advantage of easy and inexpensive expansion for additional bedroom or family room, while you are making money living in it.

In other words... the basement house has better, quicker, and higher re-sale value!

THE STUDEBAKER ELECTRIC. Many say that this car marked the end of the horse-drawn carriage era, for Studebaker was the leading carriage maker. From the Clarence P. Hornung Gallery of Famous American Automobiles.

TWO WAYS TO FINANCE A CAR

One is the conventional way. Select your car, then see us for the loan you want. The other is the pre-approved loan plan. See us FIRST, before you select the car. We will approve your loan in advance. Then you pick out the car and complete the deal. Both ways are good. Take your choice!

The Dodge Boys Have It All!

(THEY'VE GOT THE DEALS...ON YOUR KIND OF WHEELS.)

AROUND.

Only the Dodge Boys have an all-new pickup for '72. With all the toughness you expect from Dodge. Plus fresh new styling, the roomiest cab around, double wall construction, and more. Up front is a new independent front suspension for people, and in back are tough leaf springs for the load. You have to pay extra for this ride combination on some other pickups. But it's standard on the all-new Dodge. See it now.

Pontoon Taverns Warned To Observe Closing Hours

Pontoon Beach Village Board President Otto Kreher has warned all taverns in the village to observe closing hours established by village ordinances.

In a letter to the owners of all establishments serving or selling liquor in the village, the village president warned that tavern hours would be strictly enforced.

A grand jury probe of village affairs during the administration of Thomas L. Staicoff, former board president, referred to enforcement of tavern closing hours. Staicoff resigned his post Jan. 27 and appointed Kreher to succeed him.

A copy of Kreher's letter to the tavern owners was read to the village board during a special meeting Monday night. Kreher said the enforcement order was effective immediately and taverns would have one-half hour after closing to have all customers out of the taverns. The village ordinance calls for all taverns to be closed from 1 a.m. to 6 a.m. Mondays through Saturdays, and from 2 a.m. to noon Sundays.

Want Lagoon Improvements
A letter was read from the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency calling for immediate improvements to the Lake-shore Sewage Lagoon which serves the Gaslight Walk apartment complex.

The letter enumerated 10 steps that must be taken to bring the lagoon in compliance with state law. The board was ordered to see that action was taken to eliminate rodents, halt obnoxious odors, repair breaks in the fence, post appropriate warning signs and return the water aerators to operation to maintain a high level of oxygen in the water. The village also was instructed to raise the east side of the lagoon to prevent overflow, hire a licensed supervisor to maintain the lagoon, submit monthly operation reports to the EPA, supply information on daily flow and population served and supply the EPA with status reports on compliance with the October 14, 1971, Madison County Circuit Court ruling on maintenance of the lagoon.

The board was informed that the lagoon is among property held by the Illinois Federal Savings & Loan Assn. and that the association should be informed of the letter.

Request Hearing
A letter from the Community Improvement Association of Pontoon Beach requesting a hearing for Sister Mary Cornelia Hagans, former village police dispatcher and juvenile officer, was referred to the police committee for study. Sister Cornelia was suspended from her duties with the police department following the grand jury investigation.

The board also considered a letter from the group concerning the danger to children from ice cream vending trucks operating in the village. The village attorney, Robert Mateosian, said he would prepare an ordinance banning the sale of ice cream and snacks from trucks on the village streets.

Plans for a car wash at the Pontoon Beach Phillips 66 service station, 4086 Pontoon Road, were presented to the board and were referred to the zoning board for a recommendation.

MINERVA CLUB PLANS

FUN NIGHT IN MAY

Minerva Reading Club members met in the home of Mrs. Georgia Harlow. Mrs. Mary Rekas was co-hostess with Mrs. Harlow, assisted in serving by Miss Lynette Lybarger, grand-daughter of the hostess.

The monthly meeting was opened with the pledge of allegiance and the Lord's prayer in unison.

Mrs. Helen Holder, president, conducted the last meeting of the club year. Fun night will be held in May with meetings to resume in September. A short business meeting was held, followed by the program. Mrs. Helen Purkayle gave a report on Buddhism. Mrs. H. O. Smith said shareholders' approval of the action is not necessary because the company was authorized in 1969 to issue up to 6,000,000 shares of common stock.

The additional shares will be distributed May 13, 1972. The directors also voted to increase the regular quarterly dividend on common stock by 1.8 cents per share, which is the near maximum allowed under the federal government's Cost of Living Control regulations. The new rate will be 38.8 cents, up from the previous 35 cents.

The dividend is payable May 15, 1972, to shareholders of record April 26, 1972. Smith pointed out that the 38.8 cents per share dividend is payable on the number of shares outstanding before the split.

Smith said the company had been paying at the 35 cents quarterly rate since August, 1969, when it was increased from 30 cents per share. A. O. Smith Corp. has paid cash dividends every year since 1940.

New Report Says All-Year School Idea Is Here to Stay

By EDWARD NEILAN
Copley News Service

Washington—Goodby, student summer vacations.

More and more American schools are holding class on a year-round basis and authorities say this latest educational innovation is here to stay.

That is the conclusion of a new report — "Year-Round School: Districts Develop Successful Programs."

The report, published by the National School Public Relations Association, estimates that about 25 school districts across the country are operating either full year-round programs or pilot projects in one or two schools.

In addition, scores of school districts in at least 27 states are actively studying the concept.

The report flatly predicts that the idea is going to grow even more in the months ahead because of "the continuing and rising pressures for more and better learning for children and the constant demands from taxpayers to at least hold the line on educational costs."

"As more and more school budgets and bond issues are rejected by taxpayers, more and more school boards will continue to look at year-round schools as the most viable alternative," the report says.

"Parents are quick to oppose double sessions and oppose classes for their children."

"Educators will press for more opportunities to individualize instruction and revise curricula."

"Taxpayers will continue to resist costly building programs."

The report notes that year-round schools do offer "many possibilities for solving other educational problems."

Despite the growing interest in year-round schools, opposition and problems still remain.

"The real problem," the report says, "is state laws which forbid or inhibit the use of year-round schools."

Presently, most states allocate aid on the basis of the average daily enrollment of a school system for a traditional September through June school year.

If school districts are going to switch to some other form of scheduling the school year, "state legislatures are going to have to reform their methods of distributing state aid," the report says.

Also, many state governments set the requirements for school operations.

"These, too, have to be changed to permit school districts to operate on a more than 180-day school year."

The report noted that it can be "extremely difficult" to convince state legislatures to revise their existing laws.

So far only three states — Texas, Illinois and California — have passed legislation to permit year-round school operation.

These three states' laws also provide emergency funds for districts during periods when regular state aid is not available.

However, "there are indications that other state governments are supporting the movement toward year-round education," the report says.

It also analyzes existing laws in 21 other states to see what changes would have to be made to permit the operation of year-round schools.

Other problems, which have forced some districts to alter their plans for year-round schools, include lack of community support or student interest, uncertainty about which of the many types of year-round plans is best for them, and the whole question of financing the program.

Although the proponents of year-round education usually do not promise it as a money-saver, "the main reason for its appeal is economic," the report says.

"Given today's revolt by taxpayers who have been rejecting school budgets with alarming frequency, anything that gives even the semblance of saving money or of using funds efficiently appeals to a lot of people — school board members, administrators and the general public."

Some districts have been disillusioned, however, to find that their saving in facilities was wiped out by increased instructional costs.

The report found no consensus on the issue, but in general these conclusions can be drawn:

"Teachers who have never been in a year-round program are usually less enthusiastic about the idea than are those who have been."

"Most administrators and school board members endorse the concept, viewing it as a practical necessity."

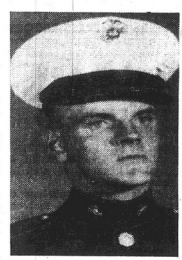

Students, as expected, are not too excited about the idea of going to school all year around.

"Businessmen tend to favor the idea of year-round schools as a reaction of the general public is, at best, mixed."

The reactions of these groups can generally be tied to the major advantages and disadvantages of year-round schools.

The advantages: more efficient use of facilities, flexible scheduling of students, reduction in new building costs, full employment for teachers, improved course offerings.

The disadvantages: disruption of family vacations, increased costs for maintenance and salaries, problems with scheduling classes, interference with student activities and sports.

William Montgomery

Receives Citation

Corporal William J. Montgomery, U. S. Marine Corps, husband of the former Miss Paula Watson of Pontoon Beach, was the recipient of a Meritorious M.A.T. commendation awarded by the 1st Marine Division at Camp Pendleton, Calif.

The commendation read in part—"I wish to commend you for the outstanding professionalism in Training Management and Training Records. As noted by the Commanding General's Inspecting Team during February 1972, you received a mark of noteworthy which could not have been accomplished without dedicated application and initiative."

It was signed by G. L. Nail, commanding officer.

The 22-year-old serviceman entered the Marine Corps May 7, 1968, and has served a year in Vietnam.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Otha Montgomery of Rural Route 7, Edwardsville, formerly of Granite City. He has a 4-month-old daughter, Dawn Noel.

Harshaw was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital with a one and one-fourth inch laceration to the right side of his head and a laceration to his forehead. X-rays were taken and he was admitted.

Stereo, Tapes Stolen
A stereo tape deck, five tapes and two speakers valued at $75 were stolen from the auto of James Fields, 1108 Kirkpatrick Homes, while it was parked at his home during the night, it was reported at 10:15 a.m. Tuesday. The left wing window was broken.

Remember Information?

It's Changed.

In 1925, when this picture was taken, we offered a service called Information. Customers could call our stylishly attired operators for phone numbers, instead of using a directory.

Through the years, like our operator's fashions, Information has changed. It's given way to Directory Assistance.

With today's vastly increased number of phone calls, the old Information concept just isn't practical anymore.

Directory Assistance is designed to help you when a number isn't in the directory or you haven't access to a phone book.

Directory Assistance encourages you to check your directory first. Then if you need help, don't hesitate to call.

Civil Defense Cast in Key Role in Natural Disasters

Changes at the national level in civil defense planning, redefinition of the CD role in natural disaster responsibilities and favorable response from Congress to requests for increased appropriations were key topics explored at the semi-annual joint conference of the Illinois Civil Defense Council and the Illinois Women's Civil Defense Council held during the weekend in Springfield.

Principal speakers at a banquet were Gilbert J. Leonard of Terre Haute, Ind., past president of the United States Civil Defense Council and Bruce Bishop, Battle Creek, Mich., director of Region IV, Office of Civil Defense.

Val Oshel, Illinois Civil Defense director and Bishop served as panelists in an afternoon discussion seminar. Bishop heads the federal civil defense program in the states of Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota and Indiana.

Taking part in the conference from Granite City were Madison County CD Director Ted Toderoff, a past council president, Victor H. Koenig, GC civil defense director and Mrs. Valerie Evenden, assistant CD director and Illinois Women's CD Council regional vice-president.

Among the highlights of a luncheon meeting for both the men and women's groups was the premiere showing of a new civil defense movie, filmed in south-central Illinois, which will be telecast nationally. Prints will be made available for local presentation after June 1.

Illinois CD Film
The film, "Trouble at Tont Station," directs public attention to the role played by civil defense personnel from Salem, Ill., a community of 6,000 people about 60 miles east of the Quad-Cities, after a disastrous passenger train wreck at Tont Station.

Tont, a defunct railroad station without adjacent population lies four miles northwest of Salem.

Written and directed by professional film-makers and funded by the Department of Defense, the movie utilizes civil defense volunteers in the cast and film clips from the actual train wreck provided by a St. Louis television station.

At a morning session of the women's group, a special preview of colored slides taken during the "Tont" filming was presented by Mrs. Juanita Llesie of Springfield, who was among those responsible for arrangements connected with the movie.

She also provided a background summary and behind the scenes glimpses into problems confronting the director in recreating certain sequences leading up to the train disaster.

Increased Budget

Leonard reviewed testimony he offered before a congressional committee to which he recommended increases in federal reimbursements to civil defense programs from 50% to 75% and 100% reimbursement for salaries of CD directors.

He also sought from the congressional leaders approval of the adjustments in funding appropriations from $25 to $50 million.

He said that the request is justified "in order to fill the legal obligations of civil defense."

"This is what people have the right to expect . . . that civil defense will do a total job in an emergency situation," the USDC official said, adding "And to do that job we must have the funds."

Leonard noted that 414 communities have applied for funds to effectively operate civil defense programs, but because of lack of money.

Bishop described a new Excess Property Program of which he commented, "Several million dollars worth of some pretty exotic equipment is now becoming available from federal sources for CD purposes."

No Cost Factor
The regional director expressed concern that excess equipment is available, totally without cost, to civil defense.

The program differs to the Surplus Property Program in which partial payment is required from the recipient community. Illinois continues to lead the six-state region in programs and funding, Bishop advised, noting that in all major program areas, "Illinois is in excellent shape compared to most other states."

He commented on changes in federal direction and emphasized that states and communities no longer are dictated to from the federal level, but are encouraged with use of broader guidelines to tailor community programs to individual conditions and personnel.

Dual Use Advocated
Serious emphasis will continue to be placed on updating the professional's role in civil defense work, with additional training seminars and instruction at colleges and universities, the official said.

Dual use of equipment, training and programs, primarily geared toward nuclear attack in earlier years, has been stepped up to effect increased readiness of units in response to natural disaster situations, Bishop commented.

Other items stressed by the regional administrator focused on revision of increased readiness procedures; improvement of information outlets to key public officials at all levels of government; development of direction and control capabilities; assisting and training personnel for industry; and incorporating civil defense training into school curricula.

Increasing appropriations to support all phases of the civil defense program have been approved by the office of Secretary Melvin Laird and now are under study by Congress, Bishop said.

"We are very encouraged with the happenings in Washington," the regional official declared, adding, "It appears a new dimension to civil defense is occurring. No longer is civil defense up there in an ivory tower."

In Washington there is a pragmatist really looking into things . . . asking does this program work and how. This produces understanding of the problems you have," Bishop told the Illinois directors.

FEDERAL RESERVE NOTES, a newly formed barbershop quartet which has been making a number of appearances in the Quad-Cities includes, left to right, Dennis McCann and Rich Pilch, both of Granite City, George Bagot of Jennings, Mo., and Eldred Mueller of Okawville. Mobile X-Ray Unit to Be in Venice Tuesday

The mobile chest x-ray unit of the Lewis-Clark Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association will be at the Viola Jones Homes, 201 Mercedia St., Venice, from 10 a.m. to 12 noon on Tuesday.

Earlier in the day the mobile unit will be stationed at Consolidated Aluminum, College and Weaver Streets, Venice, from 7 to 9:30 a.m. and again at 2 to 4:30 p.m.

The industrial and public x-ray program is free to area residents 18 years old and over. Pregnant women will not be x-rayed unless they present written permits from their physicians, according to Mrs. William Barth, executive director. TB clinic out-patients should not substitute mobile unit chest x-rays for regularly scheduled clinic examinations, she said.

The next stop for the mobile unit in the area will be on Friday, May 12, at Anchorage Apartments and at Belleme Shopping Center, 3520 Namooki Road.

Pollution Board Studies Mobile Home Park Plea

The Illinois Pollution Control Board has requested additional information from the operators of Edwards Mobile Home Park, 305 W. Chain of Rocks Road, Mitchell, before taking action on a petition for a variance. Park owners requested a variance to continue the operation of a sewage treatment facility for 30 months, or until connections can be made to the proposed Namooki, Chouteau, Venice and Granite City townships sewer.

Released on Bond

Bobby Joe Jackson, 30, of 2208 Washington Ave., was arrested and charged with battery in his home during the weekend, following a fight with Rno Zerkulien of 1341a Madison Ave., Madison.

According to police, Zerkulien went to Jackson's home to obtain a black and tackle, and an argument developed. Jackson reportedly struck Zerkulien, breaking his glasses and cutting the side of his face, police said. Jackson was released on $50 cash bond.

Exams Set for Entry To U. S. Academies

Cong. Melvin Price (D-East St. Louis) has announced that a Civil Service competitive examination will be held in Alton and East St. Louis on Wednesday, July 5, for young men who are interested in attending one of the U. S. service academies. The results of these examinations will assist Cong. Price in making a selection of 1973 academic year nominations to be submitted for consideration to each of the following academies: U. S. Air Force Academy, Colorado Springs, Colo.; U. S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md.; and U. S. Merchant Marine Academy, Kings Point, N. Y.

Young men between the ages of 17 and 21 who will not reach the age of 22 by July 1, 1973, are eligible to compete in this examination. For further and detailed information, immediate contact may be made with Cong. Price, 2488 Ryburn House Office Building, Washington, D. C. 20515, advising a preference to take the examinations at Alton or East St. Louis.
